Ex-Recorder H. L. Johnson Tendered a Beautiful Silver Set by the Attaches of the Department

ODD FELLOWS' HALL ASSOCIATION PAYS DIVIDEND

Colored Boy Wins Honors at Syracuse University—Washington's Business M n Challenge Baltimoreans for a Game of Base Ball—Former Auditor Ralph W. Tyler to Embark in the Newspaper Business—"Plums" Continue to Drop in the Lap of the Colored Brother—Judge Terrell Returns Home.

(By R. W. Thompson.)

(Bureau of The Freeman, 1337 Wallach Place, N. W., Washington, D. C.)

The situation with reference to the Recordership is practically unchanged. Col. Henry Lincoln Johnson retired from the office on the first of the month. His departure was generally regretted, and the employees united in testifying their appreciation of their chieftain's kindly treatment of them throughout his term by presenting him on the day of his retirement a beautiful silver set, appropriately inscribed. The presentation speech in, felicitous vein, was made by Mr. Noble N. Thomas, who has been Col. Johnson's private secretary during the larger portion of the past four years. The office is now in charge of Deputy Recorder Robert W. Dutton, who will hold the place, according to the law, until a successor to Col. Johnson is appointed and confirmed.

In the meantime, the contest for the Recordership goes on with unabated fervor. The colored candidates are hopeful that the place will go to a member of the race, in view of the President's positive statement that he intended to thus recognize the colored men who stood by the party in the last campaign. James A. Ross, Alfred B. Cosey, James H. Penn, James H. W. Howard, A. E. Manning and Rev. J. Milton Waldron all have enthusiastic supporters, but no intimation has come from the White House as to how they stand in eyes of the appointing power. Senator Hoke Smith has offered a bill making it necessary for a Recorder to be a bona fide residence of the District of Columbia three years prior to his appointment to such office. This is a response to the demand for "home rule" in the District, it being the complaint of the citizenry here that outsiders are getting too many purely local offices as rewards for political services in behalf of the parties that carry the country. In the event the President names a colored man, be he of the District or of the country at large, a bitter fight is foreshadowed in the Senate over the confirmation. Professional prophets are predicting all sorts of things, and the regular wiseacres are looking unusually wise—but, the fact remains, nobody knows anything about the matter and one guess is probably as safe as another. The situation is decidedly "in the air."

Odd Fellows' Hall Association Pays Another Dividend.

The Odd Fellows' Hall Association has declared and paid another dividend of five per cent. The Association is clear of debt on its magnificent $75,000 building at 1606 M street northwest, just off the stately avenue of the Presidents, and in the past few years has paid in dividends to stockholders over $12,000. The death of Mr. Thomas H. Wright leaves a vacancy in the office of president. The outlook is that Mr. Joseph Manning, now treasurer, will be elected as Presiden Wright's successor.

Colored Boy Wins Honors at Syracuse University.

At the Inter-Collegiate Regatta on the Hudson river last week the flower of the six big universities of the United States met in the twentieth annual boat race. In the contest were picked representatives of Cornell, Columbia, Syracuse, Pennsylvania, Washington State and Wisconsin universities, all primed to do their best work. The colored race, never left behind in any arena of activity, was creditably represented at this national classic by Mr. Joseph E. Trigg, of this city, who was on the Junior 'Varsity Syracuse crew. Of all college sports, to be an oarsman is the honor most coveted and for which athletes strive the most strenuously. Mr. Trigg has the distinction of being in recent years the only colored member of the big college crew of historic Syracuse University, winning his laurels by sheer merit and in the keenest competition that American youth can put up.

Trigg is a husky fellow, weighing 181 pounds stripped and stands six feet one inch in his bare feet. He is an all-round athlete. He was a member of the 'Varsity football team last season and rowed on the Freshman crew last summer. Each year he has been awarded a block letter and numeral by the Athletic Association at the college. Trigg, be it said to his credit, is as proficient in his studies as he is in the sports. His ratings were high in his Sophomore year and he passed successfully tothe Junior year. Mr. Trigg is a graduate of the M Street high school of this city and was given a scholarship to the Syracuse University in 1912. He is a native of Knoxville, Tenn., and is the son of Ex-Alderman Joseph M. Trigg and Mrs. Cora Martin Trigg, formerly of that city. For a number of years the senior Mr. Trigg has lived here and held a responsible position in the postoffice department. He is well known as a newspaper man and a gifted writer on a great variety of topics of human interest.

Washington's Business Men Challenge Baltimoreans.

Mr. Thomas J. Calloway, the well known lawyer, real estate dealer and promoter of athletics, has circulated a petition among Washington's prominent professional and business men, looking to a monster baseball contest, to be staged at Lincoln Maryland, a growing colored settlement a short distance across the District line, and which is being developed by Mr. Calloway into a place of considerable importance. The Washington business men have challenged the business men of Baltimore to meet them on the diamond at Lincoln, Saturday afternoon, August 1, and the battle will draw big crowds from both cities represented. Much interest is being manifested in the impending struggle and Washington business men are asked to help make it a glittering success in every way. It is hinted that out of this nucleus will be formed a team that may be in a position to meet the Baltimore Federals before the close of the baseball season.

W. Calvin Chase, Jr., is said to be an active candidate for the principalship of the O Street Vocational School, to succeed J. Maria Saunders.

"Plums" Continue to Drop.

As has been said before, the Negro may not be getting many of the big things that drop from the federal table, but he is picking up day by day a goodly number of the smaller "plums" that Dame Fortune passes over his way through meritorious service and ability to master the examinations required. Last week Mr. John W. White, of the Office of the Secretary of War, was promoted from assistant messenger at $720 to clerk at $1,000 per annum. Mr. Julius A. Ross, an efficient clerk in the Office of the Auditor for the War Department, has been made an examiner, a distinction attained by few members of our race in the executive departments. The race throughout the country will be glad to hear of happenings like these, which indicate that the Negro is not "all in, out and down."

Former Auditor Seeking "Sunshine."

It is stated upon excellent authority that Former Auditor Ralph W. Tyler is to embark in the newspaper business on a large scale, becoming an editor as well as a correspondent. He is said to be negotiating with Mr. J. Finley Wilson and Dr. Julia P. H. Coleman for a controlling interest in the Washington Sun, the new paper here, which has caught the fancy of the people and going "like a house afire," so to speak. The Sun is worth a neat sum of money, and as Mr. Wilson and Dr. Coleman know a good thing when they have it, they will not be moved to part with their property for a "song." In the event Mr. Tyler acquires The Sun, its policy may be radically changed, both as to politics and its attitude on school and other burning local issues. Changes in the personnel of the staff may also be expected.

THE NEWS IN TABLOID.

Rev. M. W. Clair, winner of the Post free trip to the Holy Land, will leave for his ten weeks' tour on the 11th. While away the Asbury M. E. church is to be torn down, and the erection of the new $75,000 edifice will be started.

Before coming to Washington, Miss Mabel Fairchild, the pretty Houston, Texas, schoolmarm, who is here as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Beverly, of Wallach Place, spent a pleasant period in Chicago, with Mrs. Martha E. Gray. Miss Fairchild is a social favorite wherever she goes and richly merits all of the attention she has received at the hands of the best people. Several notable functions have been given in her honor since her arrival here.

Mr. Walter Westfield, of Lincoln, Neb., has been given a position in the State Department, upon the recommendation of Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan.

* * *

It is a poor newspaper correspondent who prefers to chronicle the defects disappointment and frailties of his race to giving out facts that illustrate its successes, its virtues and its upward trend. The right-thinking Negro wishes to hear of appointments and promotions in the federal service than to have dinned in his ears week after week our dismissals and demotions. But, it seems as difficult to denature a journalistic buzzard as to change the disposition of the regular kind.

Judge Robert H. Terrell hes returned from his 'swing around the circle," greatly pleased with the warm reception accorded him by the people everywhere. With Mrs. Terrell, he visited Atlantic City last week.

A banquet in honor of L. M. Hershaw, the statistician, sociologist and journalist, is talked of.

A local branch of the National Negro Press Association is to be organized soon.

* * *

It is regarded as passing strange that the national organizer of the National Negro Business League takes no interest in the local branch of the parent body. President Daniel Freeman has been compelled to "tread the wine-press alone," as far as the handsomely-paid press agent and putative organizer of the National League is concerned.

* * *

Washington will take steps to secure the 1916 meeting of the National Negro Business League, according to sentiments expressed by a number of our leading merchants and professional men. There is not time enough between now and August to arouse sufficient public spirit to make the necessary guarantees to the organization for the coming year. Washington's choice for the 1915 meeting is Pittsburgh. It is the Middle West's turn next year.

Much interest is being manifested among Washington physicians in the forthcoming convention of the National Medical Association at Raleigh, N. C., the last week in August. The Leonard Medical College, connected with Shaw University, will be reopened especially for the occasion and the clinics will be one of the big features of the week. Dr. Arthur M. Brown, a nephew of Dr. A. M. Curtis, of this city, is president of the N. M. A.

Mr. L. N. Hershaw and Mrs. T. J. Calloway were among the many visitors at the recent commencement at Tuskegee Institute. They were "delighted" with all they saw and heard. This was Mr. Hershaw's first view of the South's Eldorado and he pronounced the institution and all of its works "stupendous." In a public address at Plymouth church here, Mr. Hershaw announced that he had been "converted on the subject of the efficacy of industrial education for the Negro masses and that he could never again say a word in criticism of the methods of a colored man who could go down into the back-woods of the South's Black Belt and out of the rawest of materials and the crudest of tools, build up a model city of the beauty and practical value of Tuskegee Institute. Mr. Hershaw is one of the most widely-known statisticians, sociologists, orators and writers of the race in the country.

Howard University this year handed diplomas to 167 admirably-equipped young men and women, with degrees in medicine, law, pharmacy, dentistry, theilogy, teaching, science, etc. The address to the graduating class was delivered by Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan, who took for his subject "The Measure of Greatness." Among those who attended the exercises on the campus were the Duke De Richelieu and Father Fenwicke, in this country to study educational methods; Rev. Ernest Lyon, of Baltimore, former minister to Liberia and now consul-general of that country for the United States; and the Hon. John Lewis Morris, secretary of the treasury for the Republic of Liberia.

Considerable complaint is made this year on the part of the press and many interested patrons of the school because of inability to secure tickets to the high school commencement at Convention Hall, and of the inadequate provisions made at the carets drill at the American League Park. Whoever is responsible for the mix-up this year will be asked to make better arrangements next season for those who have a right to expect consideration at the hands of the school officials.

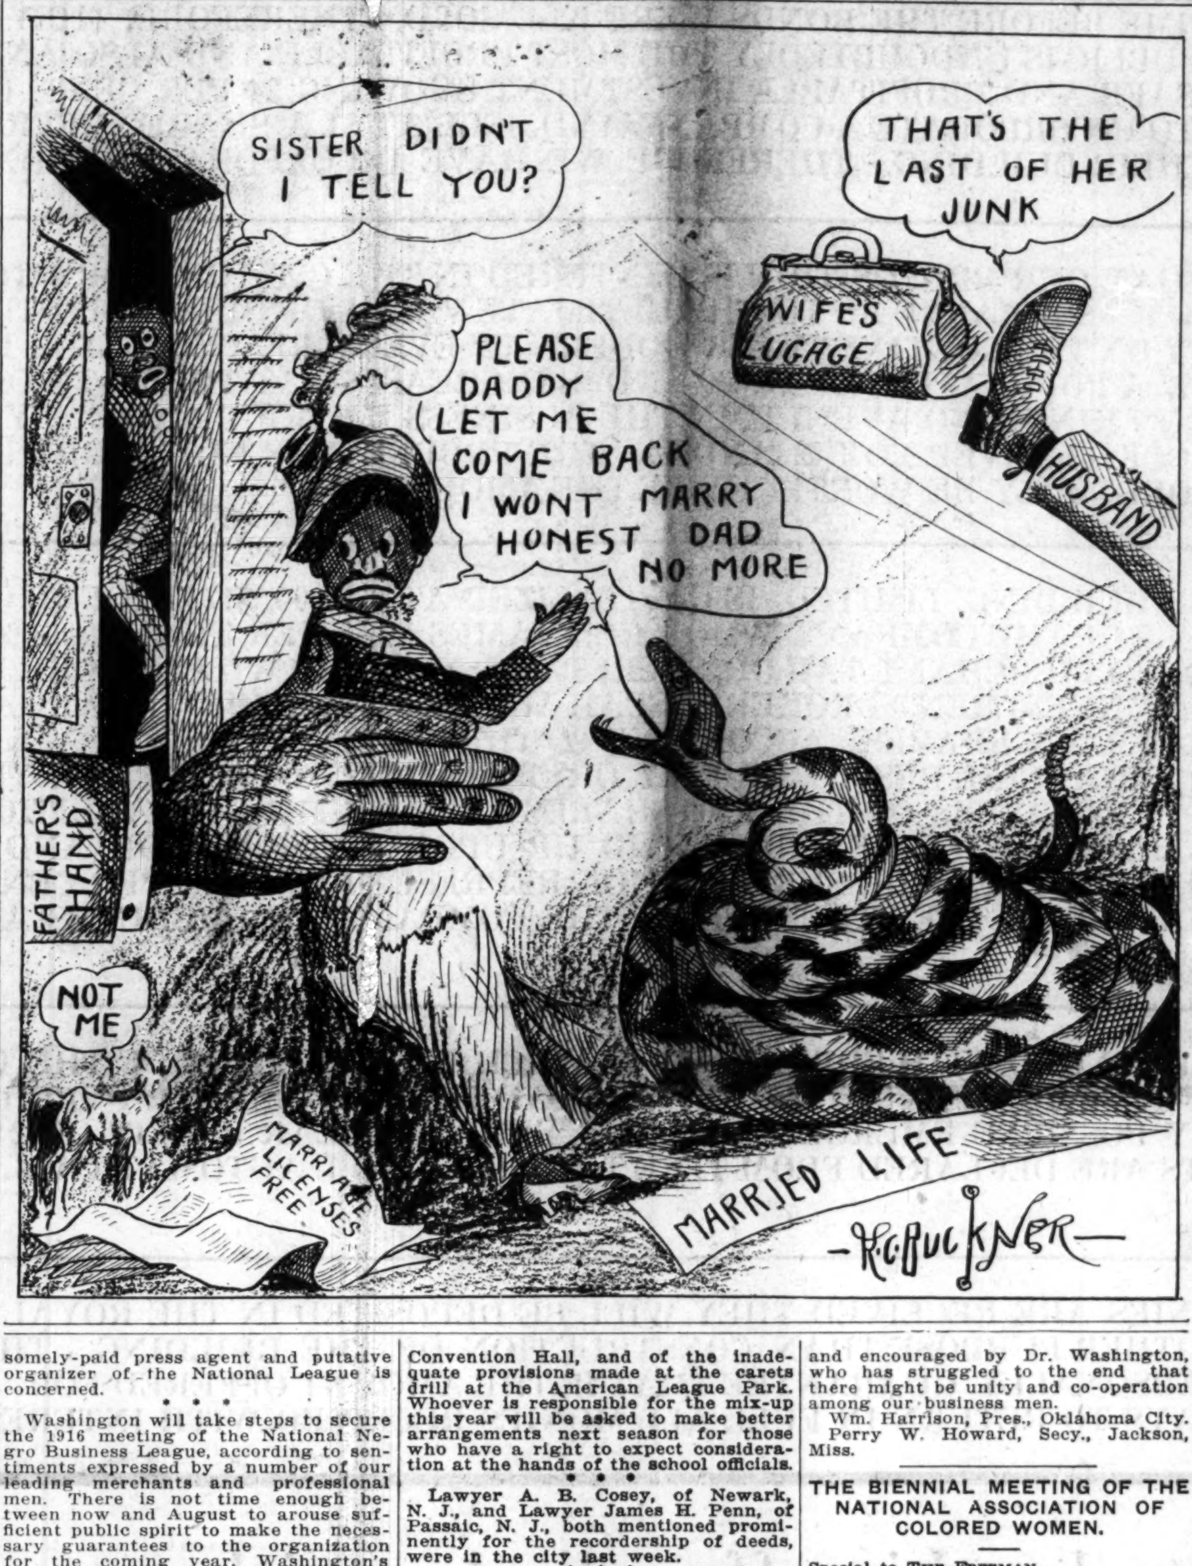
Miss Mabel Fairchild, a popular teacher in the public schools of Houston, Texas, and a favorite in the society circles of the Lone Star State, is spending the summer in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Beverly, or 1326 Wallach Place, N. W. Miss Fairchild has already won a warm place in the hearts of the people of this community, and her presence here is a delight to all who have had the good fortune to meet her. She is the recipient of many social courtesies at the hands of our "Smart Set."



NATIONAL NEGRO BAR ASSOCIATION WILL MEET.

According to the custom that has been in vogue for the past few years, the National Negro Bar Association will hold its fourth annual session at Muskogee, Okla., on the 19, 20, 21 of September, in connection with the meeting of the National Negro Business League.

Heretofore, this meeting has been interesting, instructive and pleasant and much good has been accomplished by the meeting together of our attorneys.

Great preparations are being made by the local bar of Muskogee, which numbers twelve colored attorneys, for our comfort and enjoyment.

Perhaps there is no profession in which unity of plans, practice and purpose are more needed than that among our lawyers. It is planned that this is to be the record-breaking meeting, both by way of attendance and enthusiasm.

Above all other annual meetings this is to be placed as the greatest among the leading business men of this country. And, too, we are aided and encouraged by Dr. Washington, who has struggled to the end that there might be unity and co-operation among our business men.

Wm. Harrison, Pres., Oklahoma City.

THE BIENNIAL MEETING OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF COLORED WOMEN.

Special to The Freeman.

The next biennial meeting of the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs will be held Aug. 4, 5, 6 and 7, 1914, at Wilberforce University, Xenia, O. Representatives from all of the various organizations affiliated in any way with the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs will be represented. A program is being formulated which will show the work that has been done by the various associated clubs under the direction of the state presidents and department organizations: The whole subject of health as it is effected by improper dress, by improper sanitation; tuberculosis with its dread results will occupy a large part of the program. Urban conditions, the woman and business development, and such subjects will occupy a large place in connection with the program. Some of the strongest women of the race are planning to be present at the coming meeting and to speak, including Miss Anna H. Jones, of Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. B. K. Bruce, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Mary Church Tarrell, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Mary Talbert, of Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. Geo. Cook, of Washington, D. C., and many others.

President W. S. Scarborough, of Wilberforce University, is also scheduled to speak at one of the meetings.

It is earnestly hoped that local organizations will immediately elect their delegates, sending full list to Miss Ida Cummings, 1234 Druid Hill avenue, Baltimore, Md., at once. Ample accommodations will be made for the reception and entertainment of all the delegates who are planning to be present, and the social side of the meeting will not in any way be overlooked. Write for accommodations to Miss Hallie Q. Brown, Wilberforce, O.

Many encouraging reports have come from every section of the country respecting work during the past two years. At the executive committee meeting held in Philadelphia last year, the women were more encouraged than ever at the spread of the influence of the organization in the life of Negro women of the country. A strong pull all together will bring to Wilberforce in August the greatest body of Negro women ever assembled in America.

SHERMAN LAWSON KILLED IN A QUARREL ABOUT THE JOHNSON-MORAN FIGHT.

GALVESTON, Tex.—(Special)—Sherman Lawson, 711 Eighth street, lost his life Saturday night at 10:40 o'clock caused by the results of the Johnson-Moran fight. After the body was viewed by Judge Holman, a verdict was rendered stating that Mr. Lawson came to his death by knife wounds inflicted by a white man, name P. E. Moore, who was arrested and a charge of murder was preferred against him.

(By Cary B. Lewis.)

Freeman Bureau, 3000 South State St., Phone, Douglass 8058, Automatic 75-233.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 7.—(Special.)—The citizens of Chicago have gone wild over baseball. The fact that 15,000 people have attended the games Saturday and Sunday is evidence that they are more and more taking to that kind of sport. The Cuban Stars, under the direction of Antonio Molina, have much to cause an increase in the attendance at the American Giants' park. The public seems to have a great desire for their playing. The All-Stars, made up of some of the best players in the East, including the Mohawk Giants and Royal Giants, and players from all parts of the country, will be here Sunday. W. T. Smith is manager and Lem Williams is captain. Mr. Foster claims that he will win the series.

* * *

Johnson & Humphrey, the haberdashers at Thirty-sixth and State streets, are two young men who are making great headway in this city. With the proper support of the citizens of this city, they would be able to give work to a number of clerks of their race. An effort will be made during the fall and winter to get many on the South Side to give them their patronage. They have a neat and up-to-date establishment, and are making arrangements to increase their stock. Give them a call.

SHOTS FROM DOMINICAN REBELS STRIKE U. S. GUNBOATS; AMERICAN FIRE SOON STOPS GUNS ASHORE.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Reckless Dominican rebels sent several shots against the hull of the American gunboat Machias in Puerta Plata harbor late last night, and drew upon themselves a warning volley from the Machias's three-pounders and automatic rifles. The shooting from shore stepped at once.

A few days ago the gunboat used her main battery of four-inch guns to silence President Bordas's batteries, which were bombarding the rebel garrison holding the city, in violation of the agreement that the lives of foreigners and other non-combatants would not be endangered by artilery fire.

Reporting the latest incident to the Navy Department tonight, Capt. Russell of the battleship South Carolina said considerable scattering rifle fire from the rebels passed over the Machias and some shots struck her. Later, the disptach said, the "junta commission of legalistas," representing the revolutionists, boarded the Machias and gave assurances of their desire to avoid endangering the safety of Americans.

With four separate revolutions raging simultaneously and the American minister to the country returning home after several months of fruitless efforts to restore peace, the little republic of San Domingo is causing grave anxiety on the part of the Washington government which is morally bound to maintain order there under the semi-protectorate created by treaty.

Official opinion here is slowly crystallizing into a conviction that only through powerful outside influence and probably that of the United States can these chaotic conditions be terminated and a stable government set up.

Mr. Vick, the American collector of customs, has resigned, and now Minister Sullivan is returning to the United States, leaving Secretary White in charge of the American Legation, and without any definite assurance that he will ever resume his official duties.

The State Department is reluctant to intervene forcibly in San Domingo, and it is expected that an effort will be made to send some strong man to the republic who may secure the confidence of all elements and bring them together. Meanwhile the navy is maintaining a considerable fleet in Dominican waters.

They will be given away free. What? Keep your eye on The Freeman.

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE NOTES.

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE, Ala., July 8.—The trustees of the Tuskegee Institute held an important business meeting in New York City July 5. Three new trustees were elected, George McAneny, president of the board of aldermen, New York City, succeeding the late Robert C. Ogden; Edward A. Bancroft, chief counsel of the International Harvester Company, succeeding the late Dr. John C. Grant, of Chicago; and Dr. Alexander Mann, rector of Trinity P. E. church, Boston. The full report of President Washington will be published in pamphlet form in the early fall. The expense budget for the year 1914-15, calling approximately for an appropriation of $290.000, was approved. The report showed that altogether the school has received during the past twelve months for current expenses, permanent improvements, additions to the endowment fund and for special purposes, $473,764.92, an increase of $116,432, or 32 per cent. over the receipts of the previous year. It was also disclosed that 840 colored persons had contributed toward the expenses of the institute during the past year, the best showing yet made in this direction.

* * *

The John A. Andrew Memorial Hospital at Tuskegee Institute offers splendid opportunities for medical treatment; in fact, the best authorities on hospital methods ad appliances say they know of no hospital in the South at all which affords such fine opportunities for colored patients as are provided at this superbly equipped institution. During the convention of the N. M. A., Dr. Kenney and the school were warmly commended upon all sides for the up-to-date racilities found in every department of the hospital.

* * *

Charles G. Kelley, for twelve years freight agent, handling all of the immense volume of freightage received at the institute, has been promoted to the post of assistant business agent working in conjunction with E. T. Atwell, the school's capable business agent.

THREE OF OUR PROMISING YOUNG BUSINESS MEN WHOSE RELIABLITY, INTEGRITY AND PROGRESSIVE SPIRIT IS UNQESTIONED CLUBBED TOGETHER TO ERECT FOR THEMSELVES AN OFFICE BUILDING THAT WOULD BE IN KEEPING WITH THEIR STANDING AND ADJACENT BUILDINGS IN THE BUSINESS DISTRICT. UPON GOING OVER THEIR FINANCES AND AFTER HAVING SEVERAL CONVERSATIONS WITH VARIOUS FINANCIAL MEN IN THE CITY THEY FOUND IT WAS NOT CONVENIENT WITHOUT PAYING EXORBITANT INTEREST FOR THEM TO FINANCE PERSONALLY MORE THAN 70 PER CENT. OF THE TOTAL VALUE OF PROPERTY AND BUILDING. THE RESULT WAS THEY HAD TWO ALTERNATIVES FROM WHICH TO SECURE THE ADDITIONAL 30 PER CENT. THE FIRST AND A VERY GOOD ONE FOR THEMSELVES WAS TO INCORPORATE A COMPANY AND ISSUE BONDS AT 7 OR 8 PER CENT. INTEREST FOR THE REQUIRED AMOUNT. HOWEVER, OWING TO THE UNIVERSAL MONEY STRINGENCY THEY REALIZED THAT FOR A NEW COMPANY IT WOULD REQUIRE CONSIDERABLE TIME BEFORE THE BONDS WERE ALL SOLD. THEREFORE, THEY ACCEPTED THE OTHER ALTERNATIVE WHICH FOR THE PUBLIC IS UNDOUBTEDLY THE MOST PROFITABLE AND ALSO AN OPPORTUNITY THAT FOR A PERFECTLY LEGITIMATE, SAFE AND PROFITABLE INVESTMENT SHOWING 24 PER CENT. AT LAST, THE RIGHT HAIR OIL HAS BEEN FOUND.
MAJOR'S OXFORD HAIR OILS.

Every woman knows the tremendous difference in hair oils—differences in quality, in purity, in fineness—in the way they adhere to the scalp and in appearance on the hair. Your hair oil has always been a real problem. You will find the nearest approach to your idea of a perfect oil in Major's Hair Oil.

Heretofore you have had difficulty in finding an oil of sufficient fineness that would adhere to your scalp. Have you not been obliged to sacrifice one advantage for the other?

Now, in Major's Oxford Hair Oils, you have both a product of remarkable fineness, and at the same time one which adheres perfectly. Some oils, to gain adherent properties, contain injurious substances. OXFORD HAIR OIL is pure as the driven snow. It comes in paste and liquid. OXFORD HAIR OIL is boiled time after time to degree of fineness that is most unusual. It is practically invinsible on your hair, gives the true, natural glossy effect of real beauty. THE FINEST MATERIALS ARE USED, the greater proportion of which are imported.

If leaving for the summer, wouldn't you like a complexion cream with the real fragrance of violets? The delicate perfume of fresh, sweet violets, so real you can close your eyes and fairly believe you are smelling fresh-cut flowers themselves. This is the toilet delight awaiting you in Major's Oxford Complexion Cream and Face Powder.

"Freshen up" with it tonight! See what a sence of dainty cleanliness it brings you, what an exquisitely fresh fragrance it imparts to your face, neck, hands and arms.

For summer freckles and tan the above mentioned cream cannot be excelled. It rapidly bleaches and preserves the skin so well that one is able to go out into the light and sunshine as often as one may wish with no fear of tan.

It should be used before going in bathing or entering any out-door games as the sun and wind cannot affect the skin when one uses Oxford Cream This cream is perfectly harmless and excellent for the skin and may be used with perfect confidence.

It is manufactured in the Oxford Laboratory and is a secret known only to W. L. Majors. Most of the raw materials are imported.

All Oxford Preparations Are Guaranteed by W. L. Majors Under the Pure Food and Drug Act, June 30, 1906, Serial No. 57865.

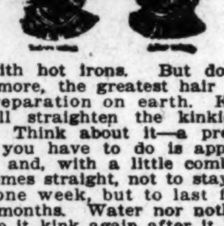
STRAIGHTEN YOUR HAIR



Not with hot irons. But do it with Kink-no-more, the greatest hair straightening preparation on earth. Kink-no-more will straighten the kinkiest kind of hair. Think about it—a preparation that all you have to do is apply it on the hair, and, with a little combing, the hair becomes straight, not to stay for one day, or one week, but to last from six to eight months. Water nor nothing else will make it kink again after it has been straightened. Kink-no-more is a wonder worker. So marvelous does it do its work that one can hardly believe their own eyes. It works like magic, and is unique because there is not another preparation in the world like it. We offer a reward of $100 for any head of hair that Kink-no-more will not straighten.

Kink-no-more is a vegetable compound; it is perfectly harmless and will not injure the scalp nor hair, but will stop it from falling out; positively removes dandruff, promotes a luxuriant growth of healthy hair and keeps it soft and glossy. Remember that Kink-no-more is sold under a guarantee to do all that is claimed for it or money refunded. We will send to any one on the receipt of $1 a regular size box of Kink-no-more, enough to straighten from one to two heads of hair. When ordering send registered letter, postal money order or express money order. Liberal inducements offered to agents. Write today for special terms. Inclose 2-cent stamp for reply. KENTUCKY METROPOLIS

Central District Sunday School Convention—Segregation Opposed by Both Races—Guy Smith Passes Away—Prof. D. P. Lawson Appointed Professor of Science at Frankfort State Normal.

(Melville Perdue, 1219 W. Chestnut St., Louisville, Ky. Phone City 5038.)

The Central District Sunday School Convention convened with the Anchorage Baptist church at Forest, near Louisville, Thursday morning, June 24th. This was the largest attended and most successful session in the history of the Association. Over 150 delegates represented practically that number of schools, and the gathering of Sunday school workers was discussed by experts in that line of work.

A new feature of the work is the institutes that are held twice a day. At this meeting it was voted that every year competent and national men would be invited to conduct these institutes. It is also understood that those who shall attend a full lecture course shall be given certificates. Mr. Thos. Dorsey, the president incumbent, was re-elected with all of his officers. Perhaps the most important change in the convention was the changing of the personel of the executive board. There seemed to be a contest between the older and younger members of the convention for supremacy. It seems as though that the younger people are gradually winning their fight and the time is not long hence that younger workers in the Sunday school shall have at least an active part in the shaping of the policy of the convention. Of course the foregoing does not mean that convention is rift with strife and contention, but there is a strong underlying feeling that the older men such as pastors of the various churches, should give way and allow the young men and women more time and more active work in the convention.

Two hundred and seventy-nine dollars and five cents was raised and a contribution of about twenty-eight dollars made to education. The people of the three counties that comprise the Central District are proud of their achievements and went home determined to double the amount of work in their various fields of labor and also the amount of money that is to be raised for the convention.

Results are coming thick and fast from the passage of the segregation law. It is beginning to be loathed by both white and black alike. Yet there are those of the lower element of white people who were made glad by its passage and are taking steps to have it upheld. A protest signed by persons residing around Melwood avenue, and the city limits, addressed to the Board of Public Safety, asks that body to put a stop to the erection of a colored club house at 1935 Melwood. The ground was bought and building started so it appears before the segregation law was passed and now these little white people are trying to see if they can't stop it. Still another echo from the law: The City Attorney has been asked to declare a block now occupied by white people to be black. Those making that request gave as their reason that more money could be made off of black renters than off of white. Our people are fighting not with ugly words and unkindly feeling toward the white, but with intelligence, money and determination. The fight is being conducted by the Association for the Advancement of Colored People. A large mass meeting is to be held Sunday, when more people are to be interested and a general campaign to be outlined.

If not a negro, what and who was Sammy Cecil? Is the way the Herald heads an article inquiring into the life of Sammy Cecil, a ten-year-old boy who died at the City Hospital Monday night from injuries that he sustained from being run over by a wagon a few days ago. It seems that the local white man cannot find enough of crime among the riff-raff of the city and is trying to stir up something sensational. Sammy lived and passed as colored and attended colored schools and Sunday schools without attracting attention, yet when he dies he must stir up a tale of kidnap or crime. To what end will not notoriety drive some people. He has been declared by the authorities though many people say that they knew his moter to be a colored woman. After all, there is no difference between us, is there?

* * *

Mr. Guy Smith, one of the wealthiest and most influential men of our race, passed away last week. Mr. Smith had resided in this city for quite awhile and numbered among his friends some of the wealthiest white men. He had been sick but two weeks and was suffering from a highly nervous affection.

Mr. Smith was born in Lexington March 22, 1834. The story of his rise in the business world is remarkable. From a one-horse wagon he built a business that employed auto trucks and many people of his race. His residence, 1706 W. Chestnut, was the finest owned by colored people.

The funeral services were conducted from the Fifth Street Baptist church, of which church he was a member. Revs. Frank and Parrish delivered the funeral eulogy.

So world wags, the oldest and most influential minister in the person of Rev. C. C. Bates; the oldest and wealthiest physician in the person of Dr. E. S. Porter, and then the oldest and wealthiest business man in the person of Mr. Guy W. Smith.

Mrs. Daisie Warfield, of 1018 Zane street, entertained in honor of Miss Annie Vertress Martin, of Owensboro, Ky., who was visiting her cousin, Miss Penelope Perdue. Covers were laid for twenty and quite an enjoyable evening was spent by all present. Miss Martin left for her home on last Sunday, after having spent a pleasant three weeks.

* * *

The will of Mr. Guy Smith was admitted to probate, but owing to an objection, was postponed. The estate consists of four houses and lots, the moving business and personal property. The testator says he leaves nothing to his son, Rochelle I. Smith, because his share has been advanced. His wife, to whom he leaves the bulk of the estate, is named executrix.

The wedding of Dr. J. A. C. Lattimore to Miss Hutt, of St. Louis, was the most elaborate affair in the way of a wedding. A bridal party of ten or more prominent citizens attended the ceremony. The wedding was held in All Saints church.

The bridal party was met at the door by the cross bearer, minister and choir, who sang "Oh! Perfect Love." This was composed especially for the occasion by Prof. J. Geral Tyler.

The bride was charmingly gowned in crepe meteor trimmed with chiffon chantilly lace and pearls from abroad. The veil was draped on the train by sprays of lily of the valley.

The bridesmaids, Misses Parker and Alice V. Simms, wore gowns of pink marquisette trimmed with tulle ballet skirts and turquoise blue girdles and wore hats of the same material.

The maid of honor, Miss Georgia A. Lattimore, wore an imported embroidered gown of chiffon over pink crepe de chine trimmed with rosebuds and ribbons. She wore a hat of white chiffon, pink roses and white ostrich plumes.

The maid of honor and bridesmaid carried baskets made of pink rosebuds and lilies of the valley.

The ceremony used was taken from the ceremony used at the wedding of King Edward V of England.

The bride and groom are at home to friends, 1502 W. Walnut street. They will receive their friends Sunday. Many beautiful and useful presents were given them.

Mr. and Mrs. Al. A. Andrews, who were married in Washington on the 24th of this month, are at home to friends, 1231 W. Chestnut street.

The colored people of Louisville are aroused over segregation ordinance recently passed in that city. Mr. Chapin Brinsmade, the attorney for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, has just returned from Louisville, where he has been giving the matter the closest study. On July 5th the local branch of the National Association will hold a great meeting of protest at which Dr. J. E. Springarm, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the National Association, and Prof. William Pickens, of Talladega College, will make the chief addresses.

This is the Association which investigated segregation in government departments at Washington and largely through its efforts that undemocratic movement was checked.

In Baltimore, through its local branch, it has twice won segregation cases, the last time before the Supreme Court of the State. It is now preparing to carry a case brought under the new ordinance to the Supreme Court of the United States.

In Kansas City, where the homes of the colored people were dynamited in order to make them move from a desirable neighborhood, which they owned and had developed and improved, they were unable to obtain redress from city or state authorities until the National Association intervened.

This Association stands for equility of opportunity, euality in the courts, the civil and political rights of the colored man. Its membership includes white and colored. It is not sectional, having branches as far south as Alabama and Texas and numbering among its members representative Southern white people. Its Board of Directors includes some of the most representative people of both races: Miss Jane Addams, Mr. Oswald Garrison Villard, Mr. Archibald H. Grimke, Miss Mary White Ovington, Mrs. Florence Kelley, Dr. John Haynes Holmes, Dr. W. E. B. DuBois, Dr. J. E. Spingarn, and many others.

Dr. Spingarn was for ten years professor of comparative literature in Columbia University. He is internationally known as a scholar, author and critic. His book of verse, The New Hesperides has received high praise, numbering among its admirers John Hay, who wrote of it in terms of flattering appreciation.

Prof. Pickens is known as a teacher and lecturer. He is an orator of remarkable eloquence. He graduated from Yale with high honors, having been elected commencent speaker and a member of the ΦBK.

Prof. Pickens will address the mass meeting which is held in Quinn Chapel, Sunday, July 5th, 1914.

Prof. Wm. Pickens, of Talladega, Fla., will address the open air meeting on the Y. M. C. A. lawn Sunday evening, July 5th, 5 p. m. Special music has been arranged for the occasion.

MARSHALL, TEXAS.

(By M. C. S. Joseph.)

Freeman headquarters, Leveston's barber shop.

The hottest days of the season was witnessed last Saturday and Sunday. The thermometer registered 104½ degrees in the shade. You can imagine what it might have been in the sun.

Misses Alberta and Violet Griffin are back home again after a month's visit to relatives and friends in Natchesdouches, La.

Mr. Dave Parker is all smiles again.

Mrs. Jack Williams, one of the oldest residents of Marshall, departed this life Wednesday, June 24th, at the Shepperd Sanitarium. The body was kept out until last Sunday to await the arrival of her brother. The funeral services were held at Ebenezer M. E. church, place of her membership, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Hayward. She leaves a devoted husband, a sister and brother and other relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Was laid to rest in Powder Mill cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Cole, of Shreveport, the daughter of Mrs. Nellie White, who was brought here by her mother, died last Sunday night of pleagrae at the Shepperd Sanitarium. Funeral services were held at Miles Chapel C. M. E. church conducted by Rev. J. S. Lucas, pastor, and was laid to rest in College cemetery.

Prof. Langhorn, the colored architect of the city, is doing some fine work. You will do well to see him before building your fine home.

It takes the nickels to keep things going. If you wish to keep The Freeman coming have the price and if it fails to show up on time call up The Freeman man.

The Sunday school of Ebenezer M. E. church went out on 8-mile for a picnic Friday, June 26th. There was quite a crowd to go. There were many wagons, buggies and other vehicles.

Next week at the Idle Hour beginning Monday night, July 5th, there will be an entire change of shows each night for the week. Watch for the bills.

Mrs. Angie Washington, who underwent a very difficult operation at Kahn's Memorial Hospital, is now back home again and is doing fine.

Mr. Robert Malone, who has been suffering some weeks with an affected eye, is doing nicely.

Sick list: Mrs. Lula Sims, Steven Roudon.

It has been reported that there is several cases of pleagrae in Shepperd Sanitarium.

Mr. Joe Beaver, Will Mann, Sam Richardson and A. R. Golikely have organized a fat man's club. No lightweights can join.

Miss Jessie Wiley was the lucky one at the Idle Hour last Saturday night to get the prize, a beautiful diamond ring.

Read The Freeman and be up and you will be sure to stay up. Can be found at Leveston's barber shop.

KENTUCKY'S GREATEST ENTERTAINMENT.

Eighth Annual Session of the Owensboro Negro Chautauqua—Daviess County Rural Schools Best in the State.

OWENSBORO, Ky.—(Special)—The Negro rural schools of Daviess county are the best in the state. The standard for teachers has been raised. Only teachers who are high school graduates with experience and normal training are employed. The minimum salary is $50 per month. The maximum already attained is $75. This speaks well for county Superintendent R. L. McFarland, who is one of the greatest educational influences in the state.

The Mt. Pasgah lodge of Masons laid the cornerstone of the C. M. E. church last Sunday.

Quite a number of the city teachers are attending summer schools.

The Evansville B. B. defeated the Owensboro All Stars baseball team Sunday. Score 5 to 4.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church holds annual convention at Henderson this week.

The management of the Owensboro Negro Chautauqua is preparing for their eighth annual session July 18-26. This is the largest attended institution in the state of more than one day's duration. The Hamilton Military Band will furnish the music. Some of the leading Negro orators, publicist, educators and pulpiteers of nation will appear on the program. This is indeed Kentucky's greatest entertainment. The premiums on industrial exhibits will bring out a fine evidence of Negro thrift and industry.

SATURDAY, JULY 11, 1914.

Green corn is in; and so are tomatoes that don't need a treatment with skin success. This is the life!

It is quite the natural thing for the Colonel to stand by his own administration. He will be no more able at this time to see why Columbia should be paid $25,000,000 than he could when he was President.

With twenty-nine persons killed and about eight hundred wounded owing to the Fourth of July celebrations, we are said to have made some advancement. That is, we killed some less and mutilated some less than we did last year.

Now that Carranza and Villa, the two Mexican revolutionist chiefs, have gotten together they will proceed to continue the struggle by holding out from Huerta, meaning no peace in sight. The boys might get their heads together. The triumvirate, even if selfish, could parcel out a lot of good things. Get together!

The Recordership fight at Washington is growing in interest. Editor Ross of Detroit, Mich., is making a noise like a candidate. It is also said that an Indianapolis man is making a gum-shoe campaign. The white brother is none the less vigilant. He is after everything in sight, including the Recordership and the Haytian ministership when there is vacancy.

. The National Association of Colored Women's Clubs will be held at Wilberforce University, Xenia, Ohio, August 4, 5, 6 and 7. Mrs. Booker T. Washington is president of the association and she is doing all in her power to make the meeting successful. The speakers will be persons of prominence, including Mary Church Terrell and Prof. W. S. Scarborough.

The Progressive party is merely whistling to keep up its courage. Logically, it has no show for a long life. It takes some mighty principles to born a party that will stick. Some men change to a new party because dissatisfied with the old party; not because of principles, but because of the poor success in coming into office, and such like. That class will change again at the earliest opportunity. The Progressive party has no reason to live; nor has it any hopes.

If we would avoid segregation let us get rid of the things that suggest it. We will be able to make a conscientious, determined fight when conditions are right. Many of us secretly oppose the very thing that the white people oppose, but have not the nerve to come out with it. Many of us oppose poorly kept homes and boisterous streets. We want to see our people fully worthy of the best struggle for them. When making pleas and stands for the race we should be buoyed up by the thought that there's nothing to conceal, nothing for which to blush. Some of us have grown to believe that we have nothing to do but sit around and wait for our rights to come to us. It is our business to get as agreeable as possible, so that we may fit in with the day, and thus reduce the thought of denying them.

Segregation is being most bitterly fought in Louisville, Ky., by the colored people. Some weeks ago the boards of councilmen and aldermen passed a measure to the end that the city be districted, or that there be separate sections, or streets for the Negroes and the white people. This measure stung the pride of the proud Kentucky people, who learned their pride of their "patrons," the white people. They feel greatly humiliated to know that after these years the white people have felt the necessity to strike them such a cruel blow. Every effort is now being made to have the law revoked. Public meetings are being held, and other steps have been taken to bring about the previous condition. We are not different in our views to what we were some time ago when we said that such movements should be as double edged swords. They should cut two ways. There is nothing in civil affairs that justifies the corralling of citizens. They do that in South Africa, but simply to keep the savage natives back—back to the bush. But there is an excuse for segregation, and it is quite the thing to talk to it. We are not improving any too rapidly in how not to be segregated.

Five thousand Filipinos in mass meeting at Manilla voted in the affirmative for resolutions asking for independence. The resolutions were cabled to President Wilson July 6. The outcome of the move is anxiously awaited. A note from Washington was as follows: "The administration is by no means sanguine of getting legislation from the congress guaranteeing independence. Persons who have canvassed the senate on the subject are convinced that it is not ready to enact such legislation. One Republican senator said today that if a bill such as the administration is now working on should ever reach the senate it would provoke at least two years' discussion, if insisted on.

The President has said to persons who have recently discussed the subject with him that he is merely moving to carry out the promise made by the Democratic platform two years ago, which, speaking for the Democratic party, said: 'We favor an immediate declaration of the nation's purpose to recognize the independence of the Philippine islands as soon as a stable government can be established, such independence to be guaranteed by us until neutraliation of the islands can be secured by treaty with other powers.' "

THE PRESIDENT ON THE RIGHTS OF MEN.

President Wilson's 4th of July speech at Philadelphia was a rather solid piece of business. He had very little to do with flourishes and embellishments. Really he was, severely plain and outspoken, as if he felt the "terrible need." Through it all ran a spirit of indifference to criticism, and honesty of convictions, showing clearly what manner of man the President is.

And therein lies our salvation, that of the Negro race; that of any race.

He said: "I am willing to get anything for an American that money can buy except the rights of other men. I will not help any man buy a power he should not exercise over his fellow-being."

Mr. Wilson's honesty of convictions would not be the salvation spoken of if they were not anchored in civil righteousness. Here then, is the salvation; when the majority of our country is of similar disposition and determination—when even a considerable portion of the best thought is of similar disposition and determination.

Mr. Wilson had the Mexican situation in mind when he uttered the above speech. And we are glad enough of the occasion that gave him his opportunity. We, the Negroes, may take it, that he will be mindful of us, permitting none of those studied insults, with which we are threatened, to come to pass. We take it, that it was his unseen hand that clarified that befogged atmosphere of a few months ago, at the capital, when a part of the citiens were forced to take orders from other citizens as to how they should come and go. In thinking of that remarkable speech we feel to extract a saving efficacy especially when he says that he is not willing to buy the rights of men. And had he been standing amid a congress of the world's nation, at that utterance, it would have stood up as one man and shouted salvos of applause.

Man is coming up. He is coming in for greater consideration ever since he declared himself an equal factor in the human family, a co-ordinate creation of the higher order of creaed things. The President said:

"We set up this nation, and we propose to set it up on the rights of man. We did not name any differences between one race and another; we did not set up any barriers against any particular race or people, but opened our gates to the world, and said that all men who wish to be free can come to us, and they will be welcome. We said this independence is not merely for us—a selfish thing for our own private use—but for everybody to whom we can find the means of extending."

America is great today because of that very spirit. In the more recent days statesmen have found it necessary to abridge the Declaration of Independence theory a bit, or they have thought to have found the necessity. Now and then the nation has sidestepped its great first cause, but essentially it has clung to the faith.

The President said that the Declaration of Independence was not a thing for this day; that it had served its purpose and so forth. We rather hoped that he would reach the conclusion that the thing was a something for this day even unto the very last day. This particularly so as it concerns us—the Negroes—we are growing to fit it.

It was a Banquo's ghost; it would not down, and for the better. When Thomas Jefferson wrote "That all men are created equal" no man dare contest it if he valued his own liberty. Consequently the thing stood as those guides of Moses—a pillow of clouds by day, a pillow of fire by night, until the day of realization which is now on and at its very height.

The President in conclusion, said in part:

"No man could do the work he has to do in Washington if he allows himself to feel lonely. He has to make himself feel he is part of the people of the United States, and then he can not feel lonely. And my dream is this, that as the years go on and the world knows more and more of America, it also will bring out this foundation of youth and renewal, that it will also turn to America for those moral inspirations that lie at the base of human freedom, that it will never fear America unless it finds itself engaged in some enterprise inconsistent with the right of humanity; that America will come to that day when all shall know she puts human rights above all other rights and that her flag is the flag, not only of America, but the flag of humanity."

To all intents he serves a warning to the nation, saying plainly enough that harm might be expected when the nation engaged in enterprises inconsistent with humanity. No one knows this better than the President. He has seen the gritting teeth of nations when reviewing our latest transactions in the world's affairs. We have been not unlike the dancers before Waterloo, who insisted "On with the dance!" sweetly oblivious to angry frowns. It will require the vigilance of such men, who see things and know things.

DALLAS, TEXAS.

Phone Haskell 6156, Branches, Where the Freeman Can Be Had at All Times Also at Hooper & Williamson's Drug Stores and Black's Grocery, and on the Streets Every Saturday.

(By Col. J. G. Griffin, 2922 Cochran St.)

Willie Owens, the star comedian, is causing a nightly "riot" at the Star Theater, rushing over the fun that pleases.---- Business men autoed to Corsicana and back.---- Trade with your colored brother and make them treat you right.---- Russell & Owes Co., all-stars, pleasing and packing the house nightly. "Promises" don't pay off.---- Dallas League captures the Corsicana meeting and lands three Dallasites into the state league's working forces to help build up the business, laboring and professional men of Texas. The Dallas bunch autoed to Corsicana in two big Cadillac machines and were very conspicuous in the meetings. The Hons. Welch, King and Boozman were the choice. It's now on to the national meeting at Muscogee, Okla., next month, for more working honors. ---- The Ardions Club is being revived, and it should keep in touch with its members and they (members) with the finance in order to do business and build up as it should in the metropolis. "It takes money to make the mare run, boys," is the club's motto for the future. ---- Mr. Chas. Pleuque, the expert chauffuer, is with his car and people up in Michigan and through other Northern and Eastern states. ---- The Dallas friends are showing their heartfelt appreciation to the company of Russell & Owens, who came to the Star playhouse the past week. They are the talk of the city. Each member is a star in his or her line and show the class as well off stage as on, and are nightly packing the house. This city was formerly Billy Owen's home, about 26 years ago, and a large number of his old-time friends are turning it on for him and others of his company. Messrs. Owens and Russell are highly elated over the company's success here so far. They are indefinitely booked ad are pleasing the people who are hard to please, because of the clean, moral side of the show. Business is different in these players and the entire company, which each and every one should be proud of. ---- The Park is soon to have high-class vaudeville. Mr. Chester Johnson will be on the job. Watch the Freeman. ---- Fat Jack is rushing the pictures nightly to large crowds. ---- The Dallas friends on the stroll send greetings to Mr. H. Drake and company and other Texans in the profession. J. G. B. says buy and read the Freeman and cut out "ganging" one copy. ---- Madame McNeal, of Waco, is visiting Mrs. P. Lowery, on Thomas avenue. ---- Miss M. C. Roberts, teacher of music, is the guest of Miss M. E. Gordon, on Thomas avenue, for the summer. ---- It makes no difference if you do owe debts. It should be paid according to your promise. Colored mercnants need theirs as well as the white merchant. The Dago and his dogs watching night and day, is succeeding off the Negroes' support, for our people just gang up their place, and pay, too. ---- The Masonic Grand Lodge will be grander and larger this year than for several years past. All the departments will be in session the same week, July 22. ---- Mr. Frank Carter and son visited his brother in Oklahoma City this week. ---- Mr. Frank Mullins, 3608 Central avenue, is nursing a broken right leg, but is improving. ---- Mrs. Annie Taylor is visiting relatives in Mexia indefinitely. ---- Mr. Henry Wallace, of Denison, spent a lively day in the metropolis. ---- The social evil of this old city is broadening out so the Negro who has self-respect can get it, and those not having it are considered in their own sphere. ---- Mrs. S. D. Jones, 1901 Watkin street, asks a share of your trade. Buy your fresh meats at the market conducted by your race next door to Scott's grocery. ---- Mrs. Will Perkins is spending three weeks in Marlin. ---- Mr. Al. Ventress, of Oklahoma City, paid his wife and his daughter's family a visit ad returned last week. ---- Mr. Dock Russell is up. ---- Mr. Frank Gordon and son paid a short visit to relatives in Corsicana and returned to this city. ---- If you move, let me know it, if you expect to get the Freeman each week. ---- Miss Millie Smith is improving, after several weeks' illness. ---- The following barbers are with Mr. J. H. Anderson in the New Excelsior Union Shop, 2410 Elm street: M. Nicols, J. Anderson, King Clay and Miss Nancy Kerwin, ready to serve your wants. ---- Its nice and cool at James' Park every night. ---- Mr. Business Man, its up to you to do that advertising of your wares and whatever you have to sell, or to find that long-lost relative far away. ---- The death of Mr. S. O. Jackson was a shock to his many friends. He was a Mason in good standing. ---- Mr. Tom Call is at home from the burial of one of his sisters. He has the sympathy of his friends here.---- The East Dallas Black Cats, Foundry, Oak Cliffs and North Dallas Browns, and other local teams should try to put some business into their game and buy some grounds and enclose them.

JUDGE TERRELL IN CINCINNATI.

Delivers a Great Speech and Pours Oil on Troubled Waters—Gen. Joseph L. Jones' Magnificent "Get Together Breakfast." "That Smacker."

Special to The Freeman.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 1.—For the first time in the history of the "Queen City" all the warring elements that have made Hamilton county the hottest spot on the national map were under one roof. The date was June 25, and the roof was that of Gen. and Mrs. Joseph L. Jones, 1537 Blair avenue, one of the very finest in the exclusive Walnut Hills section of the city. The occasion was a breakfast in honor of Judge Robert H. Terrell, of Washington, D. C., who was recently confirmed as a member of the Municipal Court of the District of Columbia, after one of the stiffest fights known to modern politics. The speeches at the breakfast were all of the "Get Together" variety and it is said that the editor of a local paper declared himself to be so happy over the outcome of Judge Terrell's visit, that he had given orders to tear down three columns of matter of an inharmonious character, already set up for the next issue of his journal. Henceforth, he would be found working shoulder to shoulder with his erstwhile opponents, realizing that strength is to be gained only by laboring like brethren for a common cause. This was Mr. W. P. Dabney, editor of The Union, at whose invitation Judge Terrell came to Cincinnati and had been given one of the grandest ovations ever accorded a guest of the town.

Bubbling with the "milk of human kindness," Prof. I. Garland Penn, secretary of the Freedman's Educational Bureau, put through a motion to organize a club known as the Terrell Harmony Club, which will serve as the political Hague Tribunal for the colored participants in the varied activities of Hamilton county.

An original feature of the breakfast was the naming of each guest after some notable character in public life or giving him a designation fitted to him by personal attributes or historic connection. The unique list was as follows:

"The Mediator," Judge Robert H. Terrell; "Huerta," W. P. Dabney; "Dr. Syntax," Dr. J. C. Erwin; "Carranza," W. L. Anderson; "Pal O'Mine," H. M. Higgins; "John Drew," T. J. Monroe; "Sweet Marie," Abram Willis; "Tooth Carpenter," Dr. Ellery Cox; "Omar Khayyam," Robert Fisher; "Chicken Inspector," Edward E. Minnis; "Modern Lycurgus," W. A. Carter; "Villa," Dr. W. T. Nelson; "Pax Vobiscum," Hon. George W. Hays; "Peter Ogden, Jr.," T. A. Triplett; "Pestalozzi," Prof. F. R. Russell; "Apollo," Dr. N. C. Vaughan; "Political Medicine Man," Dr. L. A. Cornish; "The Sky Pilot," Prof. I. Garland Penn; "The Christian," H. S. Dunbar; "L'Enfant Terrible," Dr. C. A. Scholey; "The Ham Tester," Dr. John McLeod; "God's Good Man," Dr. Eugene Cox; "Show Me," Prof. Richard Cole; "Demosthenes," Dr. M. C. B. Mason; "Guess Who," Mr. William N. Evans; "Stiff Proposition," Prince Rankin.

The menu was delightful and Gen. Jones, a prince of good fellows, proved to be an ideal host. The affair was easily the finest of its kind ever "pulled off" in the Queen City and will have a vital effect on the future wellbeing of the colored leaders of Hamilton county and the state of Ohio. The General outdid himself as toastmaster of the unique occasion.

2,000 at Emery Auditorium.

The evening before the happy Jones breakfast, Judge Terrell spoke to 2,000 people at the spacious Emery Auditorium on "Fifty Years of Freedom." The meeting was presided over by Judge David Davis, who was presented to the vast assemblage by Attorney Thomas J. Howard. The speaker was eloquently introduced by Editor W. P. Dabney, of the Cincinnati Union, and referred to as "the only full-fledged Negro Judge in the United States." Among those present and who made telling speeches were Mayor Fred S. Spiegel, Judge Otway, J. Cosgrave, Mr. Richard Witt, city treasurer; Mr. William Leimann, city auditor; Prof. R. J. Gondon, superintendent of the public schools; Prof. F. M. Russell, principal of Frederick Douglass School; Hon. George W. Hays, Dr. A. B. White, of the Bureau of Charities and Corrections; Mr. John R. Holes, director of Public Safety; Hon. Nicholas Longworth, former member of Congress; Revs. D. E. Skelton, C. S. Williams, W. A. Oxley, W. L. Frean and G. W. Wyatt and Drs. E. H. Oxley and Darius Proud. A quaret made up of H. T. Jackson, J. Webb, A. Saunders and H. H. Granderson, rendered effective music.

Following the addresses at the Emery, Judge Terrell was the guest of honor at an enjoyable "smoker" at the Lincoln Theater, where the stock company gave an entertaining presentation of the appropriate comedy, "The Judge." W. P. Dabney was toastmaster and made everybody happy by his witty remarks touching the various speakers. Judge Terrell was equally felicitous as an orator at this merry feast as in the more stately session at the Emery Auditorium and impressed himself as one upon whose shoulders the ermine of a great nation was most fittingly draped.

CHAMPAIGN, ILL.

Sees Self-Help Boon for Negro—Quincy Minister Declares Policy of Race Working Own Salvation.

(By Z. L. Breedlove.)

"What the Negro will be in this country depends more on what he does for himself than on what others may do for him," was the declaration made by Rev. T. L. Smith, D. D., of Quincy, in calling to order the teachers' institute of the Wood River Baptist Sunday School Convention, Tuesday morning, at Salem Baptist church, Park avenue and Fifth street. There were about 100 delegates representing various sections of the state.

"Our future depends largely on the boys and girls of today, hence it is necessary that we have in our Sunday schools the best teachers possible—men and women who know how to reach children and inspire them. The institute opened at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning with song and prayer service conducted by Mrs. Laura Lafayette, of Jacksonville, who was assisted by Albert Spilled, of Edwardsville. Dr. Smith appointed the following committees:

Enrollment—Miss M. Bellamy, Mrs. E. L. Thomas, Mrs. C. M. Sharp.

Finance—H. H. Dewitt, Mrs. J. F. Johnson, Mrs. E. Bassett, Miss Georgia Osby and Mrs. H. J. Wells.

Dr. H. H. Dewitt, of Jacksonville, delivered an address showing why Negroes should use literature published by Negroes. "The Ideal Sunday School" was discussed by Mrs. Flita Johnson, Decatur. Other addresses were made by Albert Spiller, T. L. Smith, D. D., Mrs. Julia Oliver, Mrs. Laura LaFayette, Mrs. Fannie Johnson, Mrs. L. A. Waters, Mrs. C. M. Sharp and Mrs. E. Thomas. "The Ideal Sunday School Teacher" was the subject for discussion that was led by the Decatur Antioch, and at 11 o'clock there was sermons by Springfield and Pleasant grove pastors. Following the taking up of a collection, there was an adjournment for the noon hour.

Rev. H. H. Dewitt, of Jacksonville, moderator of the Wood River Baptist Association, preached the opening sermon, using as his text: "Whereas, Ye Know Not What Shall be on the Morrow, for What Is Your Life?" "It is even a vapor that appeareth for a little time and then vanisheth away."

Tuesday afternoon the following was the program: 2 p. m., song sermon; 2:30, reading of the journal; 2:40, appointment of committees; 2:45, president's annual address; 3:10, election of officers; 3:30, "The Sunday School as an Educational Institution," followed by a general discussion; 4, report of committees; 4:20, chalk talks, Galesburg, second; discussion; 5, collection; adjournment. The evening program was: 7:30, song service, Danville, second; 8, institute, sermon by Rev. J. A. Crockett; collection, and adjournment.

Wednesday morning's program follows: 9, song service; 9:30, "The Best Way to Interest Young Children in Bible Study," general discussion led by the Champaign people; 10:30, "The Sunday School as Related to the Home, the Church and the Community," discussion led by the Bloomington, Mt. Pisgah; collection and benediction.

Mr. Albert Lee re-elected superintendent of the Springfield district Sunday School Union.

Mrs. Alice Moore read a report of the A. M. E. Sunday School Convention which was held at Peoria last week, at Bethel church, Sunday.

The Freeman representative was in Monticello on business Sunday.

Mrs. Frances Rowan has returned home after a delightful visit to her home in Springfield, Ill.

Mrs. S. L. Beatty has returned home after a very nice visit with Mrs. Robert Taylor, in Springfield.

A debate was held at the Free Baptist church Saturday night; subject, "Resolved, That men are doing more to foster the church than women." The women won, 2 to 1.

Fredrick O. Evans, Supreme Master of the P. K. O. W., will be in the city Sunday, July 12.

AMERICAN GIANTS WIN FIRST THREE GAMES AGAINST CUBAN STARS.

15,000 People Pass Through the Gates Saturday and Sunday—"Rube" Foster's Team Shows Up the Islanders and in the Second Series of the Season—Foster, Wade, Gillard, Jenkins and Booker are the Batteries for the Home Team—Barber Is Named the Second Chase—New York Stars Billed for Sunday's Game with Four Others to Follow—Ladies Admitted Free.

(By Carey B. Lewis.)

CHICAGO, Ill., July 7.—(Special.)—About fifteen thousand people passed through the American Giants' park, July 4 and 5, to see them wage a game of ball against the famous Cuban Stars. Manager Malini was confident that the bristling young Cubans would at least take the first two games, but he was fooled by Mr. Foster's Giants when the first three were won, two being hotly contested. On the Fourth the enthusiasm was so great that yells and applause were heard for many squares away. The Giants seem to have a winning streak. Every man on the team seemed determined to do his best to win the series, and from all indications the "home boys" will be in the lead by Thursday. Wade, Foster, Jenkins and Gillard have been responsible, with the assistance of Booker, for the first three games in favor of the Giants. The figure 5 seems to be a lucky number with the Giants; for on Saturday, July 4, the Giants won 5 to 4; on July 5 the Giants won 5 to 4, and July 6 the Giants won 5 to 2. There were a number of thrills in the opening series. These thrills were highly appreciated by a crowd that extended from one end of the park to the other. The game was won in the seventh inning when a hit by Barber was followed by three errors by the Cubans. The score:

Sunday, July 5.

The Cuban Star fans were greatly fooled on Sunday when the home team duplicated its performance of the opening game of the series with the Cuban Stars, winning by a score of 5 to 4. A bad seventh inning, when three hits, Chacon's error and a hit batsman cost three runs, lost the Cubans the game. Seven thousand people and some more saw the game on Sunday. The ladies were dressed in style and fashion, many men going just to see how swell the "dolls" looked. Foster started the pitching, but about the seventh inning Foster let "rube" out and Jenkins brought home the bacon. The score:

Monday's Game, July 6.

Hernendez was the chief cause of the Cubans losing the game Monday. Ladies being admitted free, one of the largest week-day crowds of the season was present. The left fielder dropped three balls which proved the main factor in Monday's game, the score being 5 to 2 in favor of the Giants. Monroe's timely single put the Giants in the lead after four rounds of a tie game.

Tuesday, July 7.

The Cuban Stars won the fourth game on Tuesday. The batteries were Linsey, Gans and Jenkins and Booker for the Giants, and Pareda and Figarola for the Cubans. The score was 3 to 2. The Cubans won in the ninth inning, when a ball made a bounce over Lloyd's head and the game tied. Three men on base with another score won the game. The home boys had the game sewed up until the eighth inning.

* * *

Lewisms.

While the Chicago fans can boast of the come back of Ed Walsh, so can we boast of the come-back of Andrew Foster. In the four games he has pitched on the home grounds he has allowed three hits in the first three games and in the fourth game when he saw himself slipping he had courage to take himself out and face the music of a lot of fans who are always "rooting" for the visiting team. By his weight he is not able to field his position as well as some of the other pitchers but woe to the man who tries to drive a ball through the pitcher's box. During the series Mr. Foster has generaled his team like a master.

* * *

Barber the Second Chase.

In Barber we have the making of a second Hal Chase. He saves many a wild throw that is hurled at him like a cannon ball. On bunts and pop flys he gives an exact imitation of his friend Chase. No wonder Barber can be seen occupying a seat in the grand stand around first at Comisky's park. Barber continues to stand high in the batting percentage.

* * *

Duncan Improving.

Duncan is improving wonderfully over last season. He is covering more territory than last season and plays with more ginger. He goes after a ball with more alacrity and, although he has a passion to wait for one or two strikes to be called, he is one of the safest hitters on the team.

* * *

Sensational Monroe.

What would "Rube" and fans do without Monroe? For sensational playing he has the rest beat a mile. He gives the fans more amusement than any man on the team and plays with a vengeance. Monroe plays consistent ball and is popular with the fans. He is hitting good this season.

* * *

Capt. Hill Never Misses.

Capt. Pete Hill seldom strikes out and when in center you can close your eyes when a ball comes his way and say the man is out. Hill is leading in the batting percentage with Lloyd a point below.

* * *

Wade Wins His Game.

Wade won his game on Saturday, July 4th, although the Cubans got nine hits off him while the Giants only got five off Pareda. Wade was given excellent support.

* * *

New York Stars Coming Sunday.

The New York Stars a fast playing aggregation of semi-professionals of the Gotham state will arrive in the city Saturday night for a series with the American Giants. It is said they are a bunch of the best players from all parts of New York and have been playing some great ball this season. They play the first game on Sunday. Game called at 3:30 o'clock with four other games to follow. Get your tickets now.

* * *

Torrenti the Ty Cobb of Semi-Pro's.

Torrenti is now being called the Ty Cobb of the semi-pro teams. He pulls off more sensational plays than one could imagine. As a base stealer, he has but few equals.

* * *

Gillard Pitches Good Ball.

On Monday six men faced Gillard in the fourth inning. First man up made a single, next man was retired at first, the next man drove a liner to Lloyd, who shot the ball to home plate retiring the first man. Rodrigues was retired. Next man walked. Bases were filled and a ball was hit to Monroe, who played it fast, coming to the rescue of his team, and the side was retired.

* * *

"Daddy" Booker in Good Form.

"Daddy" Booker is playing ball as he did years ago and continues to show that he possesses wonderful ability at home plate. Gans, of the New York Giants, formerly playing great ball in left field and showed form in his pitching in the ninth inning on Sunday. Gans is still holding down third, playing consistent ball with few errors.

Particular Attention may be given to the following subject, since there are hundreds of thousands using the Eureka Comb throughout the United States and Isles. They give the best of satisfaction as to our recommend, straightening the hair beautifully with one stroke, and as assistance in causing rapid growth. Evidences coming to us from every source, of which is pleasing, that the Eureka Comb performs precisely as advertised.

No better comb on the market for purposes as we have been advised that other combs are toys, when it comes to benefits and effectual influences when used as to directions, for which every comb placed goes with it instructions how to use and for what purposes. Wherever introduced the Eureka is preferable. Merchants and agents are successful when they are placed conveniently in quantities for the public.

They are usually sold for $1.50 (one dollar and fifty cents) each complete. The only thing is to be careful in the purchase, as there is no other comb that will answer the purposes so well as the Eureka. We wholesale the Eureka Comb, being the manufacturers and promoters, and are the only wholesalers of this special device; if there are othere we would be pleased to be informed.

The devices are patented and registered. For prices and further information write

Gordon & Glenn are at the Olio, Louisville, Ky. Their act is said to be clean and classy.

Gray & Dunlop and company open week of July 13th at Daly's Airdome, 1115 Penna. avenue, Baltimore, Md.

John P. Scott (Chinese Scott) is resting up in Richmond. He will be seen the coming season with C. C. Carter's Burlesque Co.

Buster Austin opened this week at Columbuia, S. C., Airdome theater. Would like to hear from his big brother, Phillip Buster Austin.

Sarah Easton is doing fine in her fourth week at the 12th Ave. Theater, Nashville, Tenn. Sidney Easton is kicking them at the Ruby Theater, Nashville, Tenn.

Team of Hi Jerry Barnes and Miss Edith Nelson made three weeks' success with there new acts, "Alone in the Jungles" and "The Last Man." They are booked for the Dudley's time. At Memphis, Tenn.

L. W. (Daddy) Marshall, of the "Old Plantation Show," gives it as his opinion that the kind of show he has will thrive in the north as well as in the south if conducted right. One gets the opinion from what Mr. Marshall says that plantation shows have not had much success above the Mason and Dixon line.

The Sheesly & Hoffmans Greater Minstrels are now in the State of Virginia. Mr. Jno. Mayfield and Wm. Streety are creating quite a sensation through Virginia with their unicycle and slack wire act, holding the audience spellbound when they do their clever but dangerous tricks. They send regards to all friends in and out of the profession.

COFFEY & VAUGHN.

Coffey & Vaughn, in Chattanooga, Tenn., still cleaning up nightly in their own original acts, songs, parodies and dances. Hello Watts Bros. I told you so; it was either A. G. or help me laugh. Let's sing the chorus (Oh Where and Oh Where is John, Johanthan and T. Tobascus at Tonight). Hannibal won his battle; some general still battling fighting north. Managers write.

NEWS FROM F. C. HUNTINGTON'S MIGHTY MINSTRELS.

We have just crossed Tennessee from Mississippi and are now in Arkansas. We spent Sunday of last week in Birmingham, Ala., where we met numerous friends—Andy Pellabone, "Dad" Howard and others who made it very pleasant for us. Last Sunday, July 5, found us in Memphis, Tenn., where we had another "whopping" good time. We all visited the Metropolitan at night and were all pleased with the performance. Our band leader, Prof. E. W. Brown, was highly entertained in the afternoon by Prof. Edward Alexander, our former orchestra leader. After the show lunch was served and all united in the parting handshake. "Good Gravy" (W. W. Davis) closed with our company last week. Newcomers are Keith & Keith, and Hi Henry Hunt on stage, and Prof. Riley Patton, cornetist, and Henry Walker, trombonist. We are heading into Arkansas to spend a few months. Everybody knows the "mighty" in Arkansas and business is expected to be good. The bunch sends regards to all.

NOTES FROM LEGETT MINSTRELS.

The show in its second week in West Virginia is still doing good and showing to large crowds. Mr. C. R. Leggett is all smiles this week, as every town we make we leave them talking and asking him to play a return engagement. Our stage manager, Mr. Billy Terry, sure is cleaning up with his monologue. He is a scream from start until he makes his exit. His talk and new song, "Stop, Look and Listen," and then his parody on "All Night Long" are features. Our little comedian, Mr. McQueen, is getting funnier every night. Mrs. Josie McDow is going fine, and sends regards to Mr. and Mrs. Beck. George Gram is doing fine. He is a new buck dancer and is making good for a new comer, and Miss Ritter Daly is still on the bill with that "How I Need You to Teach Me That Beautiful Love." Our ball team lost a fast game, the score being 1 to 0, in favor of Bramwell, W. Va. John Blackburn, our new comedian, makes a hit singing "I Love the Ladies." He sends regards to Prof. E. Calloway, with H. K. Main Show. Our bunch sends regards to the Freeman bunch and wish to thank them for the dear old Freeman paper each week. Regards to all in and out. Pax, W. Va., week of 6th; Page, W. Va., week of 14th.

Lyric Theatre, Kansas City, Mo.

The Lyric Theater opened its doors for the summer with Dock Straine, "Jelly Roll," and his stock company of 18 people, with some show of both stock and vaudeville. They are now in their fifth week and from the crowds each night and class of shows that are being put on the Lyric theater is now the popular playhouse for our people. The company is as follows: W. Henry Bowman & Ursel Burnette, beau brummel duo. Trixie Smith is making good each night with her comedy songs. Burns & Burns (Sandy and Gretchen), comedy sketch artists; Little Laura Smith, the queen of coon shouters; The Great English & Wife (John and Mayme), past grandmaster of hoop rollers with their school of educated hoops; The Windy City Trio, Miss Mabel Gant, Eddie Gray & Miss Albertia Perkens. This trio is a scream each night. The Clarks (Qualli and Leah), classic singing, dancing and talking. Miss Alice Saulsby, singing and dancing soubrette. Miss Margrett Jackson, prima donna and classy singing. Mr. Ver Adams joined the company after a six months' run in Dallas, Tex. Mr. Harry Cabbage Johnson, that funny comedian, leaves the house screaming every time he leaves the stage. Mr. Johnson is singing one of his late songs, "I Ain't Never Had Dem Blues." Miss Mattie Dorsey and Miss Patrona Lazzo, sister team, are making good with their red hot songs. Doc. Straine, producer; Prof. M. B. Vassar, orchestra leader; Miss Ada Grear, piano; Shell Green, cornet; Fred Wells, clarinet; Chas. Washington, trombone; Curtes Mosby, trap drummer. Edward Lankford, general manager, would like to hear from good people at all times. The bunch sends regards to all friends. Performers, keep your eyes on The Freeman for something new every week. Write Lyric Theater, 1420 E. 18th St., Kansas City, Mo.

A RABBIT'S FOOT COMPANY AND "GOLD" BAND.

(By Freddie Pratt.)

Business continues to be good in old West Virginia and the big show is doing good. We showed Bluefield last night to a crowded capacity and the show went forty all the way through. T. H. Dumas, our premier comedian, brought the bacon home when he sang "I'm Satisfied," and Archie Blue never fails to get his singing his own composition, "A Soft Black." Leroy Knox takes two and three encores nightly singing "Balling the Jack." Other members of the company deserving special mention are Sparrow & Everly, the Watts Brothers and DeWayman Niles. Miss Lillian Lockart, our favorite little soubrette, has been on the sick list for a few days but is well and up now, and together with Misses Lee, Brown and White they fix things just right in the rear. Below you'll find the roster of the band: Solo cornets, E. W. Blake, Norman Mason; solo clarinet, Robert Young; 2d, clarinet and violin, W. M. Lee; solo alto, Frank Jap Reed; 1st alto, Park Wade; 2d alto, Lew Watts; 1st trombone, Freddie Pratt; 2d trombone, Joseph Watts; 3d trombone, S. S. Hale; baritone and violin, W. M. Green; bass, A. D. King; bass drum, Archie Blue; snare drum, Joseph White; solo trombone and director, Ralph S. Redmond. Our band is screaming the public everywhere. We handle an extensive rep. of opera music, also mixing in the popular stuff in such a way as to make the public like it. We can also throw away these gold instruments and make good with brass ones. We are expecting a big time on the 4th and our chef, Mr. R. Jackson, promises to deliver the goods in that ever pleasing manner. The bunch sends regards to all friends. Ralph S. Redmond, our band director, would like to hear from friends and musicians at all times. Special regards to The Freeman.

ATLANTA SHOW SHOPS.

(By the Mule.)

The Traveling Man.

Bradford & Jeanette open at Dixie theater with their road show, Monday, May 30. Was a hit. Sanford & Sanford open the show; went fine. This is one classy singing act. Arrant & Arrant went good. Miss Margaret Sipp went great; was a small riot. Oh how Miss Sipp can sing. (I am afraid). Bradford & Jeanette closed the show. Miss Jeanette broke the show up with Bradford's "Baldy Jack Rag." Bradford is making a hit singing his new song, "What It Takes to Keep My Wife from Runing Around I've Got It All." Managers should play this show as it is a hit from start to finish. They say northern performers can't make good down here, but that's false.

Arcade Theater.

Houze & Houze open the show. Was a hit. That boy Houze can certainly tell funny stories. Stringbeans & Baby Mack followed. Went good. Baby Mack is a very clever little girl.

Peter Street Theater.

Buzzin Burton was the big noise. Others on the bill were Smith & Burton.

Auditorium Theater.

Pictures. It's too bad such a fine theater like this won't play vaudeville, because it is the finest theater in the South owned and operated by colored Odd Fellows. Mrs. Lucile Dennis is the popular little treasurer. Mrs. Dennis, please put some vaudeville in this house, because the people of Atlanta want to see those colored headliners down here, don't we folks? Chorus, "Why yes." Buzzin Burton was poisoned today in something to drink. We all wish for a soon recovery.

C. P. Bailey, the manager of Dixie Theater, is all right, so if you are going to knock, join the hammer lodge. (Did you get that?)

CINCINNATI, O., THEATRES.

The Pekin.

Miss Lola Wickes, single, is very clever, a nice opener. She is followed by Gus. Butler, formerly of the Lincoln Stock, and Eloise Johnson, late of the Kinky Doo Trio. They have an A1 singing and dancing act. Manager Dempsey continues to give us a first-class show and the people persist in packing The Pekin, despite the oppressive weather.

The Lincoln.

Before mentioning anything else, let me say a word of praise for Marion Brooks, manager of this theater. He had courage enough, in the face of tremendous opposition, to hire a negro operator for his movies. That, in this prejudice-infested town, was considered a crime, and his theater was boycotted by a union, who would not allow a colored operator to join them, if he so desired. However, the better class of people, black and white, are with Mr. Brooks. Keep it up, Marion, a few more like you and the race would amount to something. And now for your vaudeville: Scott & Simmons, about the best singing team ever heard here, have already become favorites. The stock has been very materially strengthened by the addition of Little Billy Young. Of course Cliff Ross is still funny, and George Taylor is simply irresistible. Millie Williams, the inimitable female star of the company, is everybody's favorite. She sends regards to friends in and out of the profession and says the north is all right, but she would like to be in the Sunny South once again.

Dixieland Park.

Continues to thrive under the management of Ike Valentine, and stage direction of Sid. Perrin.

TEMPLE, TEXAS, THEATRICAL NEWS.

Prof. Philips and his company is at High School Theater. Prof. Hamp Harpel, leader of the band, and Happy Kimball have made a great hit in Temple this week and are recommended most highly by the public. All stars with the show are doing good work and are showing to a crowded house every night.

Billy Kersand and company will be at the Auditorium Theater this week, July 7th, with King Nayver, the King of Bees. Old papa looks nice, also mother; she's all to the merry. The company are well fixed. Everybody happy as a bee, meeting old friends. Send regards to all.

MANAGERS, BEWARE.

Managers, beware of Professor Williams, the mimic and ventriloquist. I brought him all the way to Atlanta and he stepped out without paying for the ticket.

(Signed) PERRY BRADFORD.

Gen. Joseph L. Jones is "some mediator," as that Terrell "get together" breakfast in Cincinnati will show.

Chicago Weekly Review

By Sylvester Russell.

JENETTE'S ELEPHANTS AT THE GRAND.

Downy & Gomez's Song Hit of Last Week.

The increase in attendance at the Grand, which has warranted good shows, found novelty in Jenette's Elephants. The rest of the bill included George & Mac, eccentric comedians, who scored in opera parody. Eula Lee Quartette, but with a weak soprano, was artistically fine. Scanlon & Press, dancing entertainers, with a good tenor, were big favorites and LeRoy & Mora on comedy bars, completed the list. The last half of last week had Downz & Gomez, opera singers. Chief among their numbers were the Sextet from Lucia, arranged for two, and the Intermezzo from "Cavaleria" for one, which made hits. Bayone Whipple and Walter Huston in "Spooks" won great favor. Rice Brothers were funny comedians. The Cleora Miller Trio did fine on musical instruments and The Rajahs in telepathy, captivated. Dave Peyton's orchestra, Wright Smith, Henry Lane, Tobe Brown and Miles Harris were worthy of mention.

Buster & Rockpile at the New Monogram—Gant & Perkins Return.

There was something doing in the comedy line when Buster & Rockpile came on with one of their favorite acts. Mabel Gant and Alberta Perkins looking chic as ever, gave a good sister dialogue and dancing specialty. Dyke Thomas did a fair single in blackface and Estha Bigeou replaced an act that was cancelled. Allen & Marshall, who succeeded a white act, that was cancelled, made a big hit last week, especially Arthur Allen's travesty playing on the violin.

Brown & Pinkey at the Monogram—The Moores and Peats Shine.

When Rosa Brown & Pinkey, late of Pinkey & Walker, had given a comedy finish, their act stopped the show. The graceful dancing especially of Miss Brown was also a feature. Tim & Hester Moore, in one of their favorite sketches, and Ed Peat and Ella Hayes, likewise were big favorites and Curley Ross, a white boy expert dancer, except a pool left leg comparison, attracted. The show changes houses twice a week and tango continues.

AT THE PICTURE HOUSES.

The States—This house is lined up nightly. "The Battle of the Sexes" drew big.

The Lincoln—"Woman of Mystery" drew immensely.

The Phoenix—"On the Warpath" had the usual big returns.

The Fountain—"A Girl of the Cafes" was one of the best cards here.

The Star—"At the Altar of Patriotism" filled the house.

The Alamo—"Keystone Comedy" was a laugh producer.

The Washington—"The Drug Terror."

STAGE NOTES AND STROLL NEWS.

Chas. Young and Emerson, the composer-pianist, is at Al Russell's cafe where caberet now holds sway.

* * *

Sam H. M. Davis, of Davis & Walker, denies that he played ball owing to the fact that his arm was in a sling. Blood poison had set in on his hand from a pimple scratch, but he is fast improving.

* * *

J. Arthur Conley, of Conley & Blue, did not wake up on the opening night last week at the Monogram and missed a good press notice. But they certainly put it over through the week.

* * *

Mrs. M. McConico, of Little Rock, Ark., has arrived in the city to visit friends. She is the guest of Mrs. Alexander, her sister. Al and Geo. Keith are her brothers.

* * *

Princess Sotanka has been very ill at 403 George street, Cincinnati, Ohio, but is now improving and expects to leave for Chicago at an early period.

* * *

It has been officially announced that Tim Owsley has withdrawn from the Consolidated booking agency of Chicago. Manager Martin Klein is now in sole control and is booking acts in local houses down town.

* * *

Irvin Miller and Kid Brown's comedy opened at Orange, Ill., for three days last week and met with favor under the management of Wm. H. Smith.

* * *

Bowens & Emerson, who were booked for the last half at the Grand, did not materialize. Henderson Bowens stated that Schiller Emerson who is a pianist-composer, forsook his partner after the agreement was made.

Charles Gilliam Apologizes to Russell.

Charles Gilliam, the trap drummer, who assaulted Sylvester Russell, offered an apology in person last Monday, stating that he had always been sorry for what he had done. The apology was immediately accepted by Mr. Russell, who regarded it as a great moral in so much as Gilliam is the only man who had ever apologized. Mr. Gilliam is said to be the sole support of his mother, and his course has been highly commended.

BROOKLYN (N. Y.) ALL-STARS.

Engage the A. B. C.'s—A Five-game Series Played.

Saturday, July 4.

The Brooklyn aggregation of ball tossers blew in last week and opened up an engagement with the local team, the A. B. C.'s. The Brooklyn fellows are top-notch lookers, sturdy, stocky, robust. Big Smith, the manager, and first baseman, is a regular giant. In fact his avoirdupois is somewhat in his way when traveling the bases. But he's like the famous old sexton when on duty—he gathers them in—all of them. The bunch, too, has that fresh, youthful appearance, as if they eat good and slept well o' nights. The A. B. C.'s have that broncho appearance—hardened, seasoned, prepared to go up against anything in spite of their rather medium size.

There is something in favor of big men. When they are good, they are good sure enough. They are generally good batters—vide Rube's team. The Cuban Giants, however, represent the other side, smaller men, and who show up best in the field.

The first game went to the A. B. C.'s A great crowd was present, who were chock full of enthusiasm. The New Yorkers were not without friends. Their good points were applauded, but all in vain. They went down before the local fellows to the tune of 7 to 6.

Sunday, July 5.

The gladiators met to renew their contest on the following day. The visitors were in splendid form, and perhaps smarting under the drubbing of the day before, were all cocked and primed. They went after the A. B. C.'s in good fashion, beating them out by a score of 11 to 5. At no time did it look good for the home team.

Monday, July 6.

Owing to the clean cut victory of the New Yorkers Sunday, an unusual week day crowd got together on Monday to see the outcome of the third day of the contest. It was the A. B. C.'s turn to be aggressive, since they were so roughly handled the day before. Johnson for the A. B. C.'s, was in fine fettle, and he pitched so that all sat up and took notice. The Brooklyns are good hitters; they got in some good ones. But the fielders were keen, "Old 45" and the rest of them. They "scoured" their territory in a most effectual way. The visitors were clearly outclassed, the A. B. C.'s playing superior ball. Score:

Tuesday, July 7.

Tuesday's engagement opened up, both sides having "slept on their arms over night." The New Yorkers went down again. The battle was hard fought and close. Both clubs fielded cleverly, Meade and Brown doing good work. Simpson, for Bowser's club, held the Stars safe throughout the contest. Score:

WEDNESDAY, JULY 8.

A batting rally in the ninth inning gave the A. B. C.'s Wednesday's game with the Brooklyn All-Stars, Bowser's club scoring three runs and winning the contest, 6 to 5. With the bases full, B. Taylor clouted out a long one, clearing the sacks. Both clubs hit the ball hard, eight of the hits going for extra bases. Score:

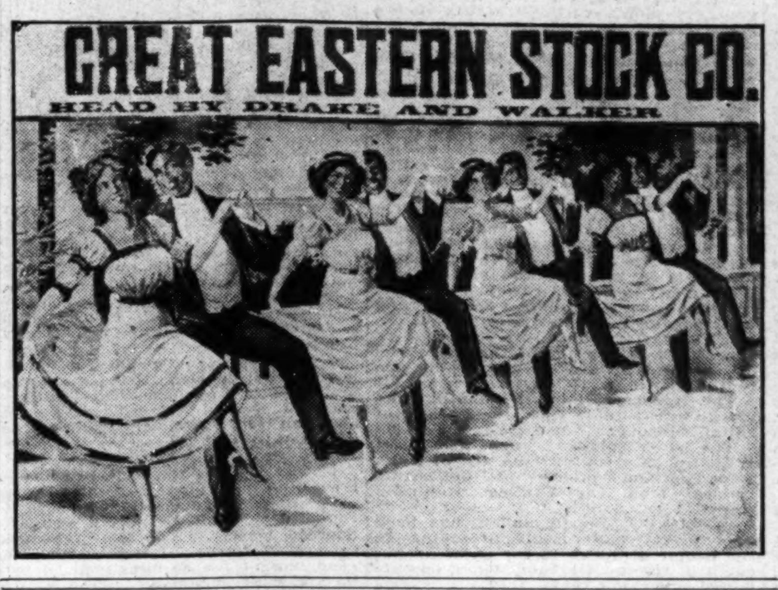
H. DRAKE

MANAGER OF THE GREAT EASTERN STOCK COMPANY.



Manager Taylor of the A. B. C.'s always shouts when something's doing on his side. He did considerable of it July 4th. He was in the dumps July 5th.

* * *

Mohawks of New York Next Sunday.

The visitors caught on to Steel Arm John right away, quick.

* * *

Sapho didn't get a look in the pitchers' box during the series.

* * *

Meade, the Brooklyn short stop, is a peach. No better, however, than Puggie of the local team. They play much alike. Either one would attract old Rube Foster's attention—that would be a compliment.

* * *

On Saturday occurred one of the most exciting games of the season. Both clubs fielded in brilliant manner, Brown for the locals, and Reese and Meade for the All-Stars, making sensational catches. With men on bases Johnson was invincible, fanning eight men. Pannell and S. Williams each clouted out home runs, Williams' hit winning the game for the local club.

* * *

In Monday's game Powell came in for notice owing to his hard hitting. "Old 45" redeemed himself for his poor Sunday's business. Both of the Taylor's made a good showing at the bat.

* * *

In Sunday's game Williams, pitcher for home team, got poor support. The whole push was being routed by the visitors. This was when "Old 45" flunked. The Taylors, B. and J., went up in the air, and C. I. refused to shout.

* * *

Johnson's pitching was the decided feature of Saturday's game. He was cornered—three men on bases, none down. He had to "cut" his way out. He punched the bunch. It was something great. General Johnson, if you please.

STAGE NOTES.

Riley Roberts, who has conducted the Hoosier Theater so successfully, has leased the Pioneer Theater, formerly under the management of Ben Young.

Drake's Stock Company is still at the Crown Garden, Indianapolis, making good. This week they presented "A Wife Wanted," a rip-roaring farce that brings down the house. Jackson & Gaston are as clever as they get to be. Drake is holding his own, and then some, as a comedian. Dixon is proving a first rate straight. Miss Edwards is still singing and dancing prettily.

ROOSEVELT STILL REFUSES TO RUN.

Colonel Is Unmoved by Pleas of Workers That He Accept Nomination for Governor of New York.

NEW YORK, July 8.—For two hours today the Progressive leaders of New York state used every argument at their command to induce Colonel Roosevelt to agree that he would accept the nomination for Governor. After it was all over, Col. Roosevelt said that he had nothing to say at this time, and would not change his previous statements declining to run. It was understood that the question was still an open one, with the Colonel continuing to stand out against the proposal that he head the state ticket.

TERRE HAUTE, IND.

Special to The Freeman.

The Highland Baptist church gave a picnic on the Fourth of July, which met with much success. ---- The white Y. M. C. A. met Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock with the different superintendents of Sunday schools of the city. They advised plans in order to get good results out of Sunday school work. Mr. Henry Stone was the only colored Sunday school superintendent present and was treated very nice. He made the second talk in regards to the plans that were laid down for the uplift and betterment of our Sunday schools in the city of Terre Haute. ---- The Rev. Edward Matthews preached at Clinton Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. at Rev. Tuggle's M. E. church. ---- Mrs. Betsy Ann Adams has been very ill, but is improving.

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.

(By Leon R. Rooks.)

The Paris Cleaning Co., under the management of Tom Paskett and Roger Turner, have moved to their new quarters on Oak street, near Union Station. Success to these young men.

Mrs. T. P. Wright is attending the Missionary meeting in Jackson, Mich. Mrs. Wright again secured the banner for Grand Rapids, turning in the largest amount of money.

Mrs. S. M. Banks left Thursday for Indianapolis and Marion, Ind., for visit with relatives and friends.

Byrd Bellis left Monday for Nova Scotia, to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Crisman are here for the summer from Louisville, Ky.

It has ben officially announced by the management of the Pentlind Hotel that they will continue with the colored boys in their new hotel dining room, which opens in September.

Miller & Lyles, colored vaudeville team, scored quite a success here this past week at Ramona Park.

There has been some talk of organizing a company among our people to build a flat building. Good, if true, but will the colored people support such a worthy cause? As they seem to be so divided and prejudiced among themselves. Get together, people, before it's too late.

Mr. Clifton Coggins, the Beau Brummel of Grand Rapids, has returned from Montreal, Can.

Our popular Mr. Sidney Smith entertained Mr. J. Saunders, of Kalamazoo, Mich., at the popular Culpher dining room.

Mrs. James Courtney, of Cincinnati, is here for the summer.

SHEFFIELD, ALA.

The city of Sheffield was highly entertained by a street carnival this past week. The crowd was very large every night.

Wednesday evening, June 24, the people of Tri-cities were much alarmed, when the report of a great explosion had happened in the Tennessee river near Smithsonia, nine colored men were killed and fifteen wounded. One white man was also wounded in the explosion.

The Tennessee river bridge that furnishes street car and train accommodation between Sheffield and Florence, was burned very bad yesterday. It will be several days before it will be ready for service.

Mr. Dave Abernathy, one of the citizens of Sheffield, died this morning. He leaves a family and host of friends to mourn his loss.

The annual sermon of The Rising Sons and Daughters of Protection, was preached by Rev. W. C. Carter at the First Baptist church, yesterday. A grand program was rendered, and a large audience was present to witness the occasion.

Mrs. Lula Moore has returned from Montgomery, where she spent a few days in visiting her relatives.

Mr. Gordy Allen and Mr. Mark Rutledge have returned from Denver, Col. Mr. Rutledge went to Denver on account of ill health. Mr. Allen assisted him out there. The doctor did not think Mr. Rutledge could stand the climate so he and Mr. Allen returned home at once.

STREATOR, ILL.

Mrs. Livikes Cobb was the A. M. E. delegate to the Sunday school convention at Peoria, Ill., and reports a fine session and a good time.

Lon Wilford is very sick.

Mrs. Jane Hicks is taking a vacation down in Missouri, with her sister-in-law, Anna Kicker.

The Odd Fellows held a picnic at McKenly park and a fine time is reported.

J. H. Simmons for The Freeman, 611 Main street.

Little Elnora Simmons is enjoying the company of her niece, Mamie D. Simmons, of Pontiac, Ill., for the vacation.

STAGE NOTES.

Williams and Stevens are at the Star Theater, Philadelphia, Pa., this week.

The Kratons hoop rollers are at the Lyric Theater, Indianapolis, this week.

Many thanks to Eller's N. O. bunch and also our manager, Mr. Chas. Bowen.

Mason and Sanders opened at Airdome Theater, Columbia, S. C., June 31st.

Margie Crosby has closed with W. A. Thomas and is again in Chicago considering vaudeville dates.

Porter and Porter are playing four weeks at 12th Avenue Theater, Nashville. Open Chicago week of 20th.

The team of Robinson and White dissolved partnership in Washington, D. C., at the Howard Theatre week of June 29th.

The Lyric and Brooklyn theaters of Wilmington, N. C., have been closed for four weeks. Will open early in August. Stock and vaudeville.

Mr. L. W. Marshall, of Marshall's old Plantation Show, was in this city (Indianapolis) last Tuesday in the interest of his company. He visited the Freeman office, where he had a pleasant chat.

Ora Criswell, comedienne, is playing with success in New York, doing single. She is preparing to go with a burlesque company. He will sign up for three years. She is in splendid health.

Jimmie Dick and Struffin just closed a big week of the 29th of June at the Casino Theater, Oxford, N. C. Open week of the 6th at the Dixieland Theater, Charleston, S. C., with the Lone Star Stock Co.

Henderson's Nashville Students and Band are the talk of the town here this week, at the Utah Theater, Salt Lake City, Utah. Prof. Walker had them slow dragging as they marched through the streets. Regards to the profession.

After seven successful weeks through Oklahoma Dorsey and Lazzo (Mattie and Petrona) opened at the Lyric Theater, Kansas City, Mo., with St. Louis to follow. They send regards to Watts, Edwards, Cheatham, McFarland, and says "Don't forget the old chicken act."

The famous Gaines Bros.' Comedy Acrobats are en route with Prof. Eph. Williams Famous Troubadours Silas Green Company and are doing nicely. They are still tumbling and building a reputation in the South. They send regards to all in and out. Watts Bros. write some time, care The Freeman.

Sambo (Eddie) Lemons, of Eller's N. O. Minstrels, was operated on Tuesday at 4 oclock at Walker's Hospital, Walker, Minn. He is somewhat better at this writing and will rejoin the show in Ft. Francis, Ontario, Can. Regards to Prof. Friend, Buckwheat Stringer. Write me. I am getting mail through the Freeman.

The performers of Marshall's old Plantation Show are Luke Galvin, "some Aunt Dinah," Gib Gibson, Harry Parker, George Williams, Johnny May, the Birmingham, "Nightingale," and Elnora Savannah. The members of the orchestra are Buster Byrd, leader, Charlie Tox, slide trombone; Payton King, pianist; Charlie Watkins, trap drummer.

The star of all Washington's theaters week of June 29th was Miss Bessie Oliver at S. H. Dudley's Theatre and scored. Name was in the lights at the second show. Messrs. Henry and Dudley say "Get Out and Get Under" has got 'em. Regards to J. H. Mason and Gozzell White. Write me 1853 7th St., N. W. Washington, D. C. Booked solid through Mr. Lew Henry, Dudley's time. Hello and good bye to all.

Prof. Jimmie Harris, Jr., and his challenge orchestra of the Booker Washington Theater, St. Louis, Mo., is to give a number of concerts in and around St. Louis in honor of Mr. Chas. H. Turpin, candidate for re-election as constable. They will serenade some of the leading clubs and cafes of the city. The orchestra is classed as one of the best you can find anywhere for its size. The roster is as follows: Jimmie Harris, leader and violin; Miss Ruth Heath, piano; Fred Richardson, clarinette; Jay Bryant, cornet; Steve Adams, trombone; Jasper Taylor, trap drums.

GRAY AND DUNLAP DELIVERING.

Gray and Dunlap certainly deliver the goods. Everything they do is clean and free from anything suggestive. Songs are a hit. They have been held over for another week at Clay Street Theatre, Annapolis, Md. They are two clever artists.

GIBSON'S NEW STANDARD THEATER, PHILADELPHIA.

"The Real Estate Agent" with Harrison Stewart and his company was a festive offering this week at Gibson's New Standard Theatre. The act won warm approval. The Ver Valian Trio with a skillful gymnastic and musical act, proved themselves to be able, the dances were of the modern sort with athletic stunts. Another feature of the bill was the appearance of Edgar Connor and Cecil Mann, who as usual made good. Billy Harper was as funny as ever and kept the audience in a roar all the time. Hendricks and Lee sang and danced into favor. The Blank Sisters have an amusing act embracing repartee, singing and dancing. Attendance was very good.

NOTES FROM THE SPARKS' SHOW

The Sparks' show had a blow down last week at Red Wood Falls, Minn. None of the performers were hurt, but most of their wardrobe was lost. One man, a citizen of the town, was hurt.

Mr. Cal Towers, manager of the Sparks' side show, took sick and had to be removed to the hospital for an operation. He is much improved, but has not returned to his work. Prof. A. R. Wright, leader of the minstrel, who has been in demand for a cornet player since the opening of the season, has engaged the promising young cornetist, Mr. Clarence Williams. His band now renders some more good music. His minstrel show is now complete. The troupe sends regards to friends in and out of the profession.

NOTES FROM W. C. CRANE'S SMILING SUNBEAMS EN ROUTE.

Special to The Freeman.

Since our last writing the show has played Bucksport, Camden and Lincolnville, all summer resorts on Penobscot Bay. The company was booked to play a third night in Bucksport, but owing to the fact that it was impossible to get out of Bucksport on Sunday morning, Mrs. Johnson advanced transportation to the company from Bucksport to Camden, the next stand, as there were not sufficient funds in the treasury to move the show. Billy Morgan, who was on the sick list, stopped off at Belfast and spent a couple of days aboard the yacht Rambler. There were things that did occur at Camden that the Freeman's correspondent could convey to the colored profession which would surprise quite a number, but at this writing I will pass it over and hold it intact for future reference for the Freeman readers. An operation was performed on Billy Morgan at Islesborough and is certainly giving the cooks at the camp lots of trouble. Mr. Murray Powell, the popular advance agent, has been visiting the company for the last week. He likes it so well back with the show that he hates to go in advance and attend to his duties. Mr. Roy Carter has been engaged as violinist and Mr. George Carter, an old sea captain of Bangor, will engineer the yacht Rambler for the cruise of the Islands. Billy Ward, the black Dockstader, has signed to stage and produce Poolers Down in Georgia Old Plantation Shows for the Bangor Fair and stage and produce for the Bucksport Amusement Company for their fall season. Charles Johnson, of Johnson and Johnson, would like to hear from Mine Fairfax and her boy. He says address him at Oldtown, Maine. Billy Ward sends regards to Clarence Powell and Mule Bradford and all friends. The company left on the yacht Rambler on Sunday last for Castine. DOC.

NOTES FROM J. C. O'BRIEN'S FAMOUS GEORGIA MINSTRELS.

We are in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia, doing a very good business. Of course, the people of Virginia all know the O'Brien Minstrels and know we always bring a show that meets with their approval. The one and original Silas Green, our successful stage manager, is putting on a new act entitled "The Blackville Guards in the Philippines." This act is one of the funniest on the American stage. Mr. Sam Jones, that funny, droll comedian, is keeping them laughing nightly with plenty of clean comedy. The old reliable P. G. Graham is still here and more than making good. Miss Estella Ramsey, the girl from Virginia, the singing and dancing soubrette, assisted by Mr. Ed. Perry, is featuring the tango. E. Alfred Drew, juggling jester and slack wire artist, is going big. Mr. Hirschel Ward, our solo clarionetist, has just received a fine $85 diamond ring. Mr. Ward wears a smile now that won't come off. Miss Ada Green never fails to win the audience, singing "Peg o' My Heart." Prof. Geo. W. Ayers and his famous 18-piece band is featuring the Baby Seal Blues on concert. Prof. D. R. Hull would like to hear from the Lees of the Rabbit Foot show.

NEWS FROM YOUNG BROS.' BLACK TROUBADOURS.

(By Seymour James.)

The Troubedours are having great success through Missouri to capital business. Everybody connected with the outfit is enjoying good health. We carry the best colored minstrel show traveling bar none; a 10-piece band and ten all-star performers. The roster of the show is as follows: Young Bros., sole owners; E. N. Calloway, band, orchestra and stage manager, is putting on some swell shows. The roster of the band is as follows: E. N. Calloway, baratone; leader, Mr. Elijah Nelson; Mr. Hutchington, trombone; Mr. Reed, alto; Mr. Washington, cornet; Mr. James Martin, tuba and bass violin; Mr. Arnett Nelson, clarinet; George Gray, snare drum; Ham Douglas, bass drum.

Seymour James and Ham Douglas are still holding down the extreme ends, while Noah Robinson and Goo Goo are filling in the rear. The soubrettes of the show are Mrs. Ethel Fields, Mrs. Linnie Robinson, Mrs. Louise Gales, Miss Sallie Jones and Miss Mary Adams.

Seymour James says hello. Freddie Pratt and J. C. Miles Robinson and Robinson are still cleaning. Mr. Goo Goo is some monologuist, believe me. Mr. James Martin, baritone singer, is featuring songs with the brass band on the streets. Mr. Noah Robinson is featuring (Prof White) in Prince Bungaloo, while Seymour James and Ham Douglas are doing the leading roles. James and Adams (Seymour and Mary), the Klassy Kolored Kids, send regards to English and English. Write some time.

James & Adams (Seymour and Mary) those Klassy Kolored Kids are still creaming with Young Bros.' Black Troubadours.

E. N. Callbway is band, orchestra and stage director with Young Bros.' Black Troubadours.

NOTES FROM INTERNATIONAL MINSTRELS.

We are now playing our last stand in Minnesota. Valley City, N. D., is next. Everybody is well and Mr. A. H. Brown, our manager, sends the ghost around every week. Mr. and Mrs. Avery would like to hear from Princess Oliver and wife.

Mr. Lee Phillips is certainly making a hit singing "Camp Meeting Band."

Mr. Burkes Campbell sends regards to Mr. Major Perkins. Mr. Campbell is some dancer.

Mr. George Avery would like to hear from all old friends.

Mrs. Maggie Harrison says, "Hello, Ada Green and Mildred Lee. Why don't you write?"

Master Elzie Simmons says, "Look out, Prof. Wm. Jackson. He is after you." He expects to have a band of his own some day.

Mr. Henry Hardin sends regards to Sam Kennedy and Prof. Jackson.

Kid Smiley says he is still among the living and making a hit singing "Good Resolutions."

Mr. Lee Phillips, our 38-year-old boy, is looking for a wife. Look out, girls, but don't forget his famous partner, little Jelly Roll. Ha, ha! Good luck to you, Phil.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Tyler send regards to friends.

J. C. MILES' BAND AND MINSTRELS WITH JONES BROS. & WILSON'S THREE-RING CIRCUS.

Everything lovely as usual. Business continues great, which makes the thoughtful employe feel good the same as it does the management.

Mr. Miles realized two more happy days. These were when we played at Cleveland, Ohio, July 1st and 2d, where he was paid a visit by his only brother, Willis, accompanied by his wife, arriving from their home at Pendleton, Oreg., en route for Chattanooga, Tenn., which is the native home and birthplace of Mrs. Willis Miles. Their trip should be called a visiting tour, as the object of the couple are to visit all relatives before returning to their home in Oregon, which will cause them to cover several thousand miles. "Good luck to the couple." Russell Jackson purchased a new "King" trombone while in Cleveland. It is trimmed with gold and he is some proud. The entire company send their best as usual. Correspondence welcomed. Write us care Jones Bros. and Wilson's Shows, U. S. Ptg. & Litho. Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

HAGENBECK-WALLACE NOTES.

(By Staff.)

Reuben Warren, doubling baritone and cello, is progressing nicely.

Leslie Davis, cornetist, and Amos Peoples, altoist, are delighted with their new Holton instruments.

A. G. Fredricks is getting along nicely. Sends regards to all friends in and out of the profession.

Remick arranged an opening chorus for Junk Edwards that has proven a distinct hit. The numbers are: "O, That Band," "The Good Ship Mary Ann" and "That Colored Ragtime Regimental Band."

Wm. Hoy has ordered a complete set of traps and will soon feature his bells.

Earl Granstaff is getting along nicely and is doing three straights in the cook house. Regards to friends.

J. HORN'S BAND AND MINSTRELS WITH GOLLMAR BROS.

We are now back in the State of North Dakota after two stands in Montana. The show was "held up" on account of the recent rains for one day in Bismarck, N. D., waiting for the railroad to be filled after several washouts, but we are now "still in the ring." The show is running nicely and everybody is satisfied. We were visited by the boys from the Alabama Minstrels in Montana and had quite a good time together. They were also handicapped by the heavy rains and had to cancel several dates ahead.

A new attraction has been added to the Annex. Chief Debro and wife, who are Esquimaux, now occupy a platform in the sideshow.

The minstrel show is running like clock work under the direction of "Slim" Mason.

The show played "turn away" at Williston, N. Dak., on the 4th of July, after having plenty of opposition "popes" from the Yankee Robinson show.

Dr. Manley, our physician, has been kept pretty busy lately attending to the people attached to the show on account of the hot weather, which has affected several of them.

J. Harris sends regards to Pop Adams, L. K. Baker, Wolfscale and the Alabama Minstrels. Edwin Jackson sends regards to M. O. Russell, Steve Adams and Jay (Curly) Bryant.

EASTERN THEATRICAL NEWS.

(By Billy.)

I caught the act of Winifred and Marten last week at the Columbia Theater, Brooklyn, and the boys certainly made good, which is the reason of their success on the Loen Time. They have a neat act, which can work anywhere. They are down East this week at the Orpheum, Boston, with Providence, R. I., and Pittsfield, Mass., to follow.

* * *

Hear Madame Dempsey, the well known comedienne, sing the song hits, "He's a Devil in His Own Home Town" and "To Think I Left My Happy Home for You," at Robison's Casino, Carnarsie, N. Y., where she is an entertaining feature.

Mrs. Jeannette Cooke, formerly of the Patti Company and wife of the well known producer, Will Cooke, caught the show at the Lafayette Theater, New York, Sunday evening.

WHAT LOWERY'S MINSTRELS ARE DOING.

(By Staff.)

Junk Edwards, our capable stage manager, must be given the credit for framing up, what is said to be, the best minstrel under the white tops. He has divided us into three well regulated shows, which makes it easier and more agreeable for all.

First Show.

Junk Edwards, "Down in Chattanooga;" Hat. Ber. Snyder, "Smother Me with Kisses" (Shapiro-Berstein); Callie Vassar, "Get Out and Get Under" (Remick); "Way to Mandalay," Leo Feist; Slow Kid Thompson, "It Was Me, Kid," "While Dancing Around" (Brod. Music Co.)

Second Show.

Amos Peoples, "Let Bygones be Bygones" (Haviland) "Keep Out of My Dreams (Feist)) Carrie Gilbert; "Just for To-night" (H. Rossiter), "You Won My Heart (H. Rossiter), Earl Granstaff; "Ballin' the Jack" (Stearn) "I Love the Ladies" (Wat. Ber. Snyder).

Third Show.

Leslie Davis, "Twentieth Century Rag" (Brod. Music Co.), "Reuben Tango's Huskin' Bee" (Williams Co.); Mrs. Hattie Edwards, "Don't Blame it All on Broadway" (Williams Co.) "You and the Moon" (Brod. Music Co.); James Jackson, "Ragtime Dream" (Feist), "Camp Meeting Band" (F. A. Mills).

With Junk Edwards and Slow Kid Thompson on the extreme ends you can rest assured that the comedy is always kept at a high pitch. In fact, all the performers work to and accomplish the same end, please the public and the management.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

Supreme Court Holds That the Right to Hold and Transmit Property Is Not Natural; It Is Bestowed.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 29.—The recent decision handed down by the Supreme Court of the United States, in the case of Jones vs. Jones, through Mr. Justice Lurton, denying the contention that the right of inheritance is a natural right, is of widespread interest to colored people not only because the decision came through a case involving the status of former slaves, but particularly because the decision upholds the argument of B. F. Booth, the celebrated colored lawyer, who won out against an array of white lawyers of the highest standing. The litigation lasted for several years.

The case has been widely quoted in press, and in many quarters the garbled reports created the wrong impression. Contrary to belief here and there the decision does not prohibit slave husbands nor slave wives from directly inheriting one from the other, nor does it conflict with the orderly inheritance of sons and daughters from their parents, whether once slaves or not. What the decision declares is that the right to hold and transmit property, since it is a bestowed and not a natural right, is to be left to the laws and statutes of the several states, and does not come under the operation of the federal constitution. The issue involved a very high point in the law and gives relief to many lawyers who have been troubled with it in all the southern courts since the war.

The plaintiffs, Will Jones and others, brothers and sisters of John Jones, an ex-slave, who died near Memphis, leaving many acres of fine land, held that they had an inheritable interest in the property. They were represented by Banks and Harralson, Cockroft and Odell and W. P. Metcalfe, all distinguished white members of the Tennessee bar. The defendant, Marguerite Jones, widow of John Jones, who denied, under the Tennessee law, that the brothers and sisters had any right of collateral inheritance, was represented by Booth, of Memphis, who had no associate counsel, fighting the case alone through the courts of Tennessee and the Supreme Court at Washington.

W. H. Harralson made the argument for the plaintiffs before the high courts of Tennessee and the Supreme Court at Washington, while Mr. Booth appeared for the defendant in all the hearings. Mr. Harralson invoked the 14th amendment to the Constitution in his behalf, his citations emphasizing the spirit of that amendment, which prohibits discrimination against any citizen and which was designed to relieve the disabilities of colored people.

In a remarkable argument, Mr. Booth contended that the 14th amendment bestowed upon colored people recently slaves only civil and political rights, and that the several states alone have the right to define the holdings and rights of property and the rule of inheritance. He strongly denied that any discrimination had been practiced against the plaintiffs in the decisions of the Tennessee courts, not only because all parties to the suit are persons of color, but because already in a celebrated case Supreme Court, dealing only with white persons, had previously held that certain alleged brothers and sisters had no inheritance right in property interests. Social conditions in times of slavery, it would seem, made it increasingly doubtful that sisters and brothers could establish their identity beyond all dispute. As decided the case does not touch upon the rights of citizenship of colored Americans, for nothing in that respect was involved.

It was left for this celebrated colored lawyer to contribute the most succinct observation defining citizenship in the United States, for Mr. Booth said to the Supreme Court: "A citizen of Tennessee cannot invoke the aid of the 14th amendment, nor of the statutes enacted in aid thereof, where his claim is limited to that of a citizen of a state, and not a citizen of the United States, for no such right is reserved by the (Federal) Constitution." Mr. Booth, widely respected for his great learning in the law, has perhaps the largest practice of any colored lawyer in the south.

MT. STERLING, KY.

Special to THE FREEMAN.

The literary Monday night rendered a fine program.

The Old Rose Club gave an entertainment at Mrs. Luther Bell's last Tuesday night.

Miss Maggie Oldham and sisters were the hostesses of beautiful luncheon in honor of Mrs. Price, of Louisville, Ky., at her beautiful suburban home at Ewington. Those present were Misses Margareitte Davis, Elizabeth Settles, Welsie Davis, Clara Booker, Amy Bean, Laura Alice Miller, Hatty Scott, Lilly Mae Congleton, Claudia Settles, Messrs. J. L. Garrett, J. C. Garrett, R. H. Burnam, A. E. Yates, Cato Fisher, R. P. Owings, C. E. Garrett, Lawrence Garrett, Will Mitchell, Strother Grubbs, Asa Magown, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Walker, Albert White.

"Saul, the King of Israel" at the High Street Christian church, last Thursday night, was one of the greatest operettas ever played before in Mt. Sterling. The cast of characters were as follows: Saul, James Mitchell; Abigale, Maggie Stockton, Jonathon, Chas. Overstreet; Michael, Estella White; Samuel, Dr. T. J. Bonner; David, Allen Davis; Witch of Endor, Pauline Davis; chorus of damsels, chorus of soldiers and full chorus. Musical director, Dr. Daisy Bonner.

Mrs. Laura Thomas was the hostess of a beautiful six o'clock dinner, Sunday in honor of her sister. Miss Welsie Davis, of Latonia, Ky., at her beautiful home on Mackies Heights.

Miss Rebecca Davis won the gold watch that was given away last Saturday.

The Rally at the C. M. E. church Sunday was a great success.

Mr. Chas. Overstreet left Monday for Lexington to visit his mother.

Mr. Jefferson Bell made a flying trip from Cincinnati here to visit his son Norbett.

A large crowd attended the basket meeting at North Middletown, June 21.

The Mt. Sterling Halls went down to defeat Sunday in a game with Winchester. The score was 7 to 5.

The C. M. E. conference begins Tuesday and lasts the rest of the week.

Mr. Jordan Glover arrived Thursday from Louisville to attend the funeral of his sister.

Mrs. Mary Cisco is still on the sick list.

Mr. Pete Grubbs is able to be out.

Lil' Arthur Jackson, the popular carrier for The Freeman, has planned to open a dancing academy. We wish Mr. Jackson a success.

George Randolph Jr., of Lexington, ws in town a few days this week.

To whom it may concern: We read in a local paper that some is kicking on the graduates going to dances. Now the dance was as nice a dance as ever was given before, and the people went away well contented. If the one who did the kicking wanted to specify some certain one, why didn't he have energy enough to say so. Now the ball room floor is not a bad step for the graduates, as it is to follow in some of their parents' footsteps. Furthermore, the money that was taken in at the door was taken in honestly, and what we said we were going to have, we had it. We did not write letters to various ones, and have them read it to a congregation, telling them that we was going to have an African wedding before the dance as to draw a crowd, and to defraud the people. For one who would do an act like this, is not worthy enough to talk about some one else, because that is obtaining money under false pretenses. Now the person who was kicking on the dance was a saint, there would be some kick a coming, but as the person is not a saint, it is best for them to keep their mouth shut. We are satisfied that the knocker was not at our dance, and we are sure that there was some special one that was there that has caused him to do this knocking. There has been dances here before this and the graduates all attended, and there never was anything said until now. The person has been living here all these long years and never done no kicking until now. If the knocker would practice what he preaches, they would be all right, but they don't seem to look back at the past while they are doing their big talk. We do not wish to carry this on any further, only we just wanted the knocker to know that they ought to have taken a second thought before being so hasty. A Beautiful Home Wedding.

(By David P. Dorsey, 248 Carrington St., North Side.)

Special to THE FREEMAN.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gilson, Sylvania avenue, Beltzhoover, was the scene of a beautiful wedding Wednesday evening, June 24th, at 8:30 o'clock, which was witnessed by a large circle of friends. Miss Annabel L., eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilson, was united in marriage to Ernest Kinnebrew, of Sharpsburg, Pa. Mrs. Herman Socks acted as matron of honor and Misses Ethel Reed, of Youngstown, O., and Flora Gilson, of Pittsburgh, were bridesmaids. Aaron Thornton was best man and Wayman Kinnebrew and Herman Socks were ushers. The wedding march was played by Miss Linnie Strothers, of Oakmont. The bridal pillow was borne by little Ernest Kinnebrew, nephew of the bridegroom. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. P. A. Scott, D.D., of Bethel church. The bride's wedding gown was of crepe de chine, with pearl and shadow lace trimming, and she carried a shower of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Socks wore salmon messeline with shadow lace. Miss Reed, a white silk with plaited tunic. Miss Flora Gilson blue messaline with all-over lace. A wedding dinner followed to nearly 100 guests. The wedding gifts were beautiful. Mr. and Mrs. Kinnebrew will reside at 116 Sylvania avenue, where they are now at home to their many friends.

THE JOHNSON-MORAN BOUT'S AFTERMATH—PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS AND COMMENT.

(By Billy Lewis.)

Some one asks this question:: "Why did Jack Johnson let him (Moran) stick out the twenty rounds?" In this column last week I tried to say: "Johnson cared to keep himself from being whipped." I succeeded in saying, according to the printer: "Johnson cared to kee phim from being whipped." Here is the conclusion of the paragraph as it appeared:

"Johnson apparently held himself in reserve, blocking mostly, and seemingly could have finished Moran if he had cared to do so. If it were otherwise, if Moran really lived up to Johnson during those twenty rounds, and if Johnson was doing his best, then Frank Moran is a good man and will eventually whip Johnson owing to his youth. But it was hardly that way. Johnson cared to keep him from being whipped. Thats all."

The individual asking the question goes on to say:

"That question has been asked time and again ever since Johnson fought Frank Moran in Paris. Moran would not have been on his feet had Black Jack fought true to form. Moran does not figure to stay 20 rounds against the champion any time or place. He is outclassed. Of course, we all appreciate the efforts of the Pittsburg lad to uphold the hope of the white race, but there is no chance for Moran. He is not there with the goods. Johnson keeps winning without making much noise. He knows that all the hopes in the championship race are easy for him, and he waits for them to come along like a baby waits for Santa Claus. The people are good to Johnson. He is content to sit in his big machine and forget all about boxing, but the promoters will not let him. He is said to have received the sum of $30,000 for his contest with Moran, and is promised the same amount for a fight with Langford in London. Georges Carpentier, the heavyweight champion of France, who refereed the Moran-Johnson contest, was asked if he cared for any of Johnsons game, but he declined the job saying, "He's too big for me." Right you are, Mr. Carpentier. All the other heavyweights could do the same thing without telling a lie. Johnson is the biggest thing in the business today. They claim he is going back, getting tired and drinking too much wine for his own good, but, like Hans Wagner, he goes on forever."

* * *

The writer does not make a great effort at answering the question he asks. He, however, does give it as his opinion that Johnson saw no necessity for worrying; and perhaps that is as good an answer as can be given. Looking on the face of the returns (the record of the rounds) most persons, we take it, agree with the writer.

Viewing it from Johnson's side it is reasonable to think that he permitted the fight to drag along because he was who he was. Although in France, a land of greater freedom, he was yet black; the spectators, mainly, were white. It was diplomacy to give Moran the effect, the appearance of doing something. The spectators further away, those in his own home who were intensely interested, were mainly white. Doubtless he debated the thing well in his mind, something after the manner of that melancholy Dane in his soliloquy: Whether it were better to jump in at once and proceed to pound Monsieur Moran to papier mache, or toy with him until the latest possible minute, and thus avoid a too cruel aspect, and by thus prolonging the struggle by Johnson leniency would be construed as the skill of Moran. This may appear a fantasy, but it may be very near the truth.

It is by no means certain that Johnson had such an idea in view, but it is reasonable to think that he did. He knows what he is up against. Paris, nor France, nor Europe can save him against his color and nationality. He made the most of the fight, I think, in all ways. The whole affair has been minus that rough stuff, rough talk, so often noted of pugilists, making the fight, at times, appear as if they were personal affairs between the men. However, this was mostly in the past. Johnson seems to have been gentlemanly and courteous, winning as much respect as was possible to come to him.

* * *

The Johnson-Moran fight has helped Johnson greatly in the world's estimation. While it was fairly conceded that he was the champion it was grudgingly conceded. He proved so infinitely superior to Moran, Flynn, Jeffries that the most stubborn-hearted have given way to admiration. And it would have been a most perverse generation had it not made an unconditional surrender to Mr. Johnson's greatness. Those who are on to the facts, and who are on his side feel great reason for gratulation at the turn in his fortunes.

McAuliffe had something along the above line before the fight. He said that Johnson would win and gave the following reasons:

"Moran is too young and inexperienced to cope with the greatest heavyweight of all times. Johnson is a wonderful mechanic, with the build and strength of a giant; has a cunning head and is the greatest defensive fighter that ever entered the ring.

"Providing he is not in the best of condition, Johnson still has his defense, and his style of milling will wear down any man who tackles him. He makes the other man do the work and that is where he will outgeneral Moran from the start."

Those are splendid, whole-souled utterances, and as if they were offered with the interest due. Note the last statement, "He makes the other men do the work and that is where he will outgeneral Moran from the start." He permitted Moran to do the fighting until he wore himself out. He clung exhausted, in the last rounds, to Johnson's arms. The point was, however, the concession of men to Johnson's status.

One can now think of the champion as restored fully to what was due him. The fight with Moran has done this. Not that he was not recognized in a manner before. He had won, on the field, so to speak, just like a people winning their independence. They may win all right, yet there must be a recognition by the onlookers, or else there is not plain sailing. This recognition has been extended even to his own country which fought him to the "ropes." But great, good things are not walked into as easily as entering a drawing room. We see the great men in offices, looking cool as cucumbers, and also comfortable. They almost excite our envy—the very sight of them. But a little thought will draw out the facts of their "rise"—the great cost to reach those offices. If they could unfold the panorama to us—looking backwards as it were—permitting us to see what they underwent, it is very doubtful if many of us would have the nerve to tackle it. We would feel more like taking off hats to those men, learning this truth by our investigation, that, those greatly up in life pay greatly for being so.

I rather think some such element enters into the growing regard for Jack Johnson. He has paid as greatly as a man could pay for what he enjoys. If he has not met great physical punishment then he has met the compensation; he has suffered otherwise, spiritually, and had he been less spiritually obtuse he would have shriveled up under the strain.

IN SPORTING CIRCLES.

London, July 2.—Jack Johnson was expected here today to sign articles for a bout with Sam Langford in London in October. Johnson promised to sign yesterday, but did not appear. Promoters of the bout here have offered him 30,000 win, lose or draw, for the fight.

London, July 1.—Jack Johnson, the negro heavyweight pugilist, today failed to keep his appointment at the offices of a sporting paper here, where he was to sign articles for a fight with Sam Langford, to take place in October. The reporters, however, received an intimation that he would arrive here tomorrow.

Sydney, N. S. W., July 6.—Georges Carpentier, middleweight champion of France, was cabled today an offer of $10,000 to meet Jimmy Clabby, of Hammond, Ind., claimant of the middleweight championship of the world. The offer was made by promoters of the Stadium here. Clabby's latest victory was July 4, when he won from Eddie McGoorty, of Oshkosh, Wis., on a foul.

* * *

New York, July 1.—Joe Jeannette, of Hoboken, outpointed "Battling" Jim Johnson three times, turning the latest trick last night when he all but put Johnson out in a ten-round bout here. Johnson was thirty-three pounds heavier than Jeannette, but the latter was never in danger.

Paris, July 1.—There was a unique funeral here of a chauffeur named Cloup, who was killed when his taxicab was engulfed in a subsidence in the Place St. Augustin.

Six hundred taxicabs started with the hearse and still other vehicles of this kind kept falling in line until there were 3,000 of them. They followed one another in a close line and refused to allow any other traffic to break through. This resulted in the paralyzing of traffic for two hours between the Place de l'Etoile and Austerlitz Station.

The United Sportsman of Pennsylvania will ask of the legislature of that state a new game law. They want Sunday fishing and a tax on cats. A note on the felines says: "The house cat is to be put under the ban, according to indications and demand made on the legislature for the enactment of a law compelling the licensing of cats by their owners. The greatest enemy to the game and song birds of today is the house cat, and the sportsmen are determined to see that the game enemies are kept at home and not allowed to roam at will in the woods and fields."

Frank Moran, before the fight—Tonight I get the chance I've sought for years. I am in the finest possible trim. I am the first big man Johnson has ever faced except Jeffries—a shell. I can hit. Al Palzer knows my right hand punch. I'll make Johnson come to me and fight. He may have a lead for a few rounds but before the fifteenth I will get the right over and it will be worth $1,000,000 to me. Watch for a clean knockout.

James J. Corbett, ex-champion, before the fight—"Johnson should win out, but from what I hear Johnson won't be in the best of form. If Moran will just cut loose and set a fast pace and if the referee breaks them quickly, he will have a chance to win."

Joe Jeanette, negro heavyweight, who has fought Johnson several times: "To beat a man you have to hit him, don't you? Moran can't hit Johnson hard enough to hurt him. I know how Johnson fights and I say Moran won't do."

Ex-Champion John Sullivan, before the fight—"Jack Johnson will be a fallen champion if Frank Moran fights right. If Moran whales away at the Negro's midsection with the viciousness of which he is capable, he will win. If he attempts to box Johnson, he will be beaten just as every man has been who has attempted to swap science or force the fighting."

* * *

Champion Jack Johnson, before the fight—I am down to weight. I never felt better. I have my old punch and I haven't forgotten how to box. If Moran thinks he will hammer my stomach he'll get a surprise. Jack Johnson can still protect himself. The reliable old uppercut is still hooked on to my hands. I will land about the twelfth round. That will be all. I'll win sure."

CHAMPIONS DIE HARD.

Titleholders Usually Fight Hard to the Finish and Fail to Show An Inclination to Quit—Many Instances are Cited.

Packy McFarland, it seems, was one of the very few looking to see White win over Billy Ritchie. Emil Thiery, White's handler, will be remembered as Packey's manager, when the South Side boy was making the rest of the fighters in the class look like dray horses in a race with a Whiskbroom a Colin or a Sysonby, and Packy is a great admirer of the Yiddish youth.

The beating of the lightweight title holder throws some interesting light upon Ritchie's great weakness. Ritchie has met Rivers, Cross, Wolgast and Murphy. All of these men are out of the slugging type, and Ritchie had just enough skill to beat them at their own game. But White is of a different type. His style is hit-and-get-away, and Ritchie does not show up as well against such men.

The defeated champion is essentially a long-distance fighter, and he feels he will have an excellent chance of reversing the recent verdict in a long battle on the Pacific Coast.

The championship—the dream and fondest hope of every lad who ever drew on a glove, the goal of every boxer's ambition—is difficult to win. And the glory is too sweet to relinquish without a mighty struggle—and it seems Ritchie has yet to put up his final battle. Looking back over the rings that were at once the deathbed and the birthplace of championships, we find that very truly "champions die hard."

One of the grandest losing struggles ever witnessed was the fight in which the beloved Jack Dempsey (the "Nonpareil") lost his title to Bob Fitzsimmons down in New Orleans in 1891.

Fitz was coming then and Dempsey was going. Jack was never in it from the start, and as early as the third round was practically out, the gong saving him repeatedly. Thereafter it was pitiful to see him go in round after round to be punished like a punching bag. In the tenth round Fitz begged the game Dempsey to give up.

"I'll never quit," was the stoical Nonpareil's reply. "You'll have to knock me out. I'd hit you if I could."

In the thirteenth round Lanky Bob had to smash him to the floor three times before he went out.

Old John L. stood up before the youthful and cruel Corbett for 21 rounds down in New Orleans on September 7, 1892, before his body gave way and he was forced to surrender. The old, untamed gladiator had guarded his title for 12 long years, and didn't think for a minute he was easy that night when he saw it slipping from his grasp. An hour before the fight was ended, Sullivan realized that, barring a lucky accident, he was up against it, and in his mind he framed up the manly speech that he delivered from the ring after it was all over. He was dead game, however, and fought on as best he could, hoping against hope that some trick of fate would turn the tide of battle his way and enable him to snatch a victory from the very jaws of defeat.

That lucky something did not occur, and in the twenty-first round Corbett saw the old warrior's knees shake under him and immediately tore into him like a tornado. His knees finally bent beneath him and the "champion of champions" sank downward in a heap—as a bag might fall. Though on the verge of unconsciousness, he mechanically tried to regain his feet. But the effort was in vain, and the veteran toppled over until his face rested on the hard, sanded floor of the ring. The giant tree of the pugilistic forest was felled at last.

The exhibition that Stanley Ketchel gave that time in Los Angeles when he lost his title to Billy Papke in 1908 is one of the most courageous on record. The first wallop of that battle was a right-hand blow by Papke. It caught Ketchel between the eyes, closing them and knocking him down. Blinded and "out on his feet," the game Western boy struggled on through 12 rounds, suffering the almost inhuman punishment that the "Illinois Thunderbolt" was able to deliver at will. Toward the last it was necessary to direct Ketchel as he left his corner, and he advanced feeling for Papke with outstretched hands.

Diminutive Cal McCarthy, the bantam champion of early days, put up a magnificent struggle in protection of his honors. He stood off that little "chocolate" demon, George Dixon, to a 70-round draw in Boston, and again, on March 31, 1891, at Troy, N. Y., he was battling tenaciously for 22 rounds before he succumbed.

Jim Corbett at Carson City beat Fitzsimmons up horribly, dropping him for the count of nine before Fitz handed him the sleep producer in the fourteenth session.

Ad Wolgast, Tommy Burns, Fitz and Abe Attell all died hard, but the greatest of all dying struggles was Battling Nelson's 11-round stand at Point Richmond, Cal. That was the very hardest. A cold rain made the battle more trying, for it was in the open. And when the end did come it found the durable one still on his feet facing Wolgast, his conqueror, and his grit and fighting spirit was intact, even though his body was not. Referee Eddie Smith had to lead the battered and delirious old warrior to his corner and make him stop fighting. Bat surrendered the hardest and the gamest and with more honor than any other champion which history knows.

Champions die hard, we say—but there are exceptions. They either die hard or ridiculously easy, and in these latter cases unodubtedly chance plays a great part. Frank Erne lost in a round to Joe Gans, and Terry McGovern went down to defeat in two short innings before Young Corbett.

A glance at this list will give an idea of how hard most champions surrender their laurels.

Cal McCarthy—Knocked out by Geo. Dixon, 22 rounds.

George Dixon—Knocked out by Terry McGovern, eight rounds.

Terry McGovern—Knocked out by Young Corbett, 2 rounds.

Abe Attell—Lost to Johnny Kilbane, 20 rounds.

Jack McAuliff—Undefeated.

George Lavigne—Lost to Frank Erne, 20 rounds.

Frank Erne—Knocked out by Joe Gans, 1 round.

Joe Gans—Knocked out by Bat Nelson, 17 rounds.

Battling Nelson—Lost to Ad Wolgast, 41 rounds.

Ad Wolgast—Lost on a foul to Willie Ritchie, 16 rounds.

Jack Dempsey—Knocked out by Bob Fitzsimmons, 15 rounds.

Joe Thomas—Knocked out by Stanley Ketchel, 32 rounds.

Stanley Ketchel—Knocked out by Billy Papke, 12 rounds.

Billy Papke—Knocked out by Stanley Ketchel, 11 rounds.

John L. Sullivan—Knocked out by Jim Corbett, 21 rounds.

Jim Corbett—Knocked out by Bob Fitzsimmons, 14 rounds.

Bob Fitzsimmons—Knocked out by Jim Jeffries, 11 rounds.

Jim Jeffries—Knocked out by Jack Johnson, 15 rounds.

WHAT JIM CORBETT HAD TO SAY ABOUT THE JOHNSON-MORAN FIGHT.

"Jack Johnson defeated Frank Moran as about everybody thought he would, but in beating him he proved he is not anywhere near the Johnson who licked Jim Jeffries four years ago. While I have never been blinded as to Johnson's real ability because of his prestige as champion, I really thought that he would put up a better battle against Moran than the stories of the fight indicate. Jack Johnson's reign as champion will end the day he steps in the ring with any heavyweight who can hit hard enough to make him realize he is in a fight. Frank Moran couldn't do that.

BRONSON, WHO HAS MADE GOOD IN AUSTRALIA, LIKES THAT LAND.

Milwaukee, Wis.—Ray Bronson, the former Indianapolis welterweight, who has been in Australia with Milburn Saylor the past six months, has taken a great liking to that country, for he writes that he will not return home in June, as he had intended, but will remain over until September. Ray has given up the game himself, and is paying particular attention to Saylor, who he thinks will in time be world's lightweight champion. He has also taken the management of Alf Morey, a very clever Australian welterweight, and he intends to go after the championship in that class for his new protege. To begin with, he has issued a challenge to the best welterweight in Australia, and also to the British champion, Tommy McCormick, who recently defeated Johnny Summers, who held the title at that time. Writing of events in Australia, Bronson says: "No doubt you will be surprised to hear that I am going to remain until fall, but the game is so good over here and I like the people so well that I simply could not get away. We were up in ths mountains for a time, and thoroughly enjoyed them. I am going to send Saylor back there to brace up, as he has had too strenuous a time since arriving here. When you stop to think that he has had nine battles, and all of them hard ones, in a very short time, you can realize the training he has been through. When he gets back I am going to match him against the best boys in the world, and one of the big matches here before we leave will be with Young Shugrue, of New York, who has been making a great showing. This battle should draw at least $25,000 to $30,000. In the meantime, I intend to train Morey for a couple of big matches with welterweights. He is a very promising young boxer or I would not take him in hand. I witnessed the contest between Joe Welling, of Chicago, and Hughie Mehegan the other night, and must say that the decision was an unjust one. The referee gave it to Mehegan, but Mr. Corbett, one of the best posted men on boxing in the world, came out in his paper and said himself that it was a bad decision and that the worst Welling could have expected was a draw. Jimmy Clabby was a big favorite over Jeff Smith in their twenty-round battle, and the decision against Clabby was not upheld by the fans by a long ways. If they ever meet again the wise money will go down on Clabby, for they think he is the best middleweight in the world today. Herbert McCoy and Kid Lewis, of Louisiana, fought a twenty-round battle last night, Lewis getting the decision. McCoy seemed to be off his stride and put up a very poor fight, compared to what he did against Saylor. If he had acted that way with Saylor he would have been stopped inside of five rounds. Regarding the match with Fred Kay and Saylor, I want to state that the worst he should have had was a draw. Saylor was not knocked down as some people imagined, but slipped; while Kay, his opponent, was floored six times. Kay is a very clever fellow and has a tantalizing left hand, but when it came to the real fighting Saylor had him beat. We will get Kay later on and then we will see who is the best man. At that I must give this young fellow full credit, for he is certainly fast on his feet and has a lightning left hand, besides being very clever in blocking.

"Probably it will surprise you to know that Tommy Burns, the ex-champion, has decided to re-enter the ring. When his man Pelkey was defeated by Bill Lang Tommy decided that he would take a chance himself. He looks fat but intends to get in shape and then tackle Bill Lang and Sam McVey, the colored heavyweight.

"Gee! but we were surprised to see the cable here that Charley White had defeated Champion Willie Ritchie in Milwaukee. It created more talk among the fight fans than anything that has happened for many a moon. You can bet that Saylor will be after White's scalp when we get back to the States. They should make a great battle, and I stand ready to back him against White for any amount, and the same goes for Champion Willie Ritchie."

When it comes to local rivalry between boxers New York has nothing on Minnesota. Leach Cross and Tommy Murphy were great rivals in New York for several years, but there has never been the bitterness between the factions that there is at present between the friends of Johnny Tillman, the Minneapolis lightweight, and Pal Brown, the Hibbing lightweight champion. Brown is the recognized lightweight champion of Minnesota, and Tillman has been hot on his trail to take the crown away from him. They have met twice in ten-round battles and it seems to be a stand-off between them, with the honors favoring Tillman as to science and Brown carrying off the glory as to real fighting bing and Chisholm, Minn., on the iron range, have come out with an offer to bet $5,000 on Pal and let the boys fight twenty rounds in private; or they will bet $2,500 on a fifteen-round test between them. That is getting back to the good old days, and it remains to be seen whether the rival lightweights will be able to get together in the Northwest and settle their differences in a private contest, or before a select few. Of course, long batles in the Middle West are not tolerated nowadays, as the law provides for only ten rounds, but as California promoters are not out bidding for contests between outsiders, it is up to the friends of the two men to get them together.

THE OMAHA TEAM A CRACK AGGREGATION.

Omaha, Nebr.

My crack aggregation of ball tossers, who have been touring the West the past four weeks, is meeting with wonderful success in crowds and financially.

In every town we have played in thus far the local manager after each game always makes the statement of the largest crowds ever in the ball park. At Omaha June 14 we played to 8,640, actual count, being the largest semi-pro crowd ever played to in that city. On account of our drawing we were booked for return game at Omaha July 4th.

At Sioux City, Ia., the fans came near breaking down the fence in their eagerness to gain admission to the grounds.

We played three days in Webster City, Ia., and the crowd the third day was greater than any previous day. At Storm Lake, Wis., the Giants again broke all records and we were forced to cancel some minor games and play them a return series July 9, 10, 11.

We left Chicago June 4, playing as follows: Geneseo, Ill., June 5-6; Sherrard, Ill., June 7; Iowa City, Ia., June 8; Mt. Vernon, Ia., June 9; Newton, Ia., June 10-11; Des Moines, Ia., June 12; Audubon, Ia., June 13-14; Omaha, Nebr., June 15; Wahoo, Neb., June 16; Nebraska City, Nebr., June 17; Blair, Neb., June 18-19; Onawa, Ia., June 20-21; Sioux City, Ia., June 22-23; Storm Lake, Ia., June 24-25-26; Webster City, Ia., June 27; Whiting, Ia., June 28; Council Bluffs, Ia. To date we have played 25 games, winning 19. We have been very fortunate in regard to weather. It rained nearly every night, but always cleared up in time for game.

We will arrive home in Chicago July 16. Will play the following dates enroute: July 1-2, Madison, Nebr.; July 3, Omaha, Nebr., July 4, two games; Atlantic Ia., July 5; Griswold, Ia., July 6; Red Oak, Ia., July 7; Corning, Ia., July 8; Storm Lake, Ia., July 9-10; Newton, Ia., July 12; Salem, Ia., July 13; Princeton, Ill., July 14; Mendota, Ill., July 15; Chicago, July 16.

The line up of the present Chicago Giants is as follows: Strothers and Badger, catchers; Crawford, Binford and Smith, pitchers; McAdoo, 1st base; Jennings, 2d base; Mongin, 3d base; Selden, shortstop; Wruston, left field; Green, center field; Toney, right field.

On the present trip in the last four games pitched by Crawford has been shut out, making 36 innings without being scored against. Crawford's work in the box this season stamps him as the only colored pitcher in the country that ranks along with big John Donaldson as the peer of the colored pitchers.

In young Badger I have found a second Pitway. In every game that he has played his wonderful throwing has brought applause from the crowds. Just as we are breaking records in the West, and at the gait we are going when we return East, we will add a good many scalps to our big list.

FRANK CHELAND.

SWEDEN WILL HAVE A FAST TEAM AT THE OLYMPIC GAMES.

More international flavor is attached to the Olympian games by announcement that Sweden will have a team of its best men on hand. Last year the Swedes took a team to Londoo and almost outscored the Englishmen. They were especially strong in the field events, particularly the shot-put and hammer throw. In both these events Coach Ernest Hjertberg has developed several men who can take the measure of the Britons, and who can also about hold their own with the best in the United States. The team which represented Sweden last year was considerably better than that the Swedes had in the Olympic games the year before. If Hjertberg's men have made an average improvement within the last 12 months they will be formidable competitors this year.

BATTLING JACK RUSSELL HAS SOMETHING TO SAY.

Montgomery, Ala.

I have read the Freeman newspaper for four years every week and I find it to be the greatest colored paper in the world, said Jack Russell. Jack Johnson is a fighting marvel and if Sam Langford or Joe Jeannette meet him in Paris they will find him out, but why not match Harry Wells with him. He is the only colored heavyweight in the world for Jack Johnson.

I have watched Johnson train days after days and I know what fighting is. I have been fighting four years and have met some of the best lightweight boys in the world and have defeated such boys as Dixie Kid, Young Johnson, Willie Mitchell, Rattle Snake Kid, also Kid Davis and others, and also met Leo Johnson April 8, 1914.

I was caught out of condition and held him all the way, even up until the ninth round with two broken bones in the right hand. It was known by Young Joe Ganes. I know a fighter and know how to fight and all I want to do is to drag Leo Johnson in the ring again.

I was at Jack Johnson's training camp, Seal Rock House, Ocean Beach, near San Francisco, Cal., 1910, training for a fight with Jim Jeffries, the champion of the world. Am well experienced in fighting and challenge Leo Johnson in preference to all others. Address 204 S. Court Street, Montgomery, Ala.

WANT RUBE FOSTER AT PITTSBURGH AT ANY COST.

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 28, 1914.

Sporting Editor of Freeman, Indianapolis, Ind.:

Dear Sir—I am writing to inform you that above named team is the only colored team in Pittsburgh and is playing first class ball, having met and defeated some of the best teams in the State.

We have in our lineup several players who have been in fast company and that is the reason our team is all ways giving the public first class ball.

The sporting people among our race are anxious to see the Famous Rube Foster in our city and they are willing to set aside a Rube Foster day and they will suspend business on that date.

I have had several people to write Rube but never received any answer. In our city we have some prominent business men and have several club members willing to give me financial support to help me in bringing Rube here.

The only handicap we have here is we haven't got a ball park; we must use Exposition Park.

Would you try and get us a date or two with Rube team in our city?

When getting dates for me try and get several of them so I can put it up to the Park people and see what dates they have.

Trusting you will help us along,

Yours truly,
TOM BROWN,
Manager P. C. C.

CHRISTY MATHEWSON HAS A GREAT RECORD IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE.

New York, July 4.—Christy Mathewson will, unless the unexpected happens, finish the campaign of 1914 with a record of having pitched at least 50 victories over five of the National League clubs. Up to last Sunday McGraw's Master Mechanic owned 348 triumphs, 61 of these secured against the Reds, 53 against the Braves, 50 against the Pirates, 49 against the Phillies, 47 against the Cardinals, 45 against the Superbas and 43 against the Cubs. His defeats totalled 163, of which 37 were administered by Chicago, 35 by Pittsburgh, 21 by Philadelphia, 20 by St. Louis, 19 by Boston, 16 by Brooklyn and 15 by Cincinnati. His entire career in the National League has netted him a percentage of .681 and this percentage, it is worthy of note, is higher than that made by 20 teams that have captured championship honors in the senior organization.

Scribes, not having the complete record of Matty at hand, have imagined that he went for the greatest length of time against Cincinnati without losing a combat. This is not so. "Big Six" was beaten by the Reds in 1908, downed them every time he faced them in 1909 and 1910 and then lost to them again in 1911. In 1908, 1909 and 1910 Matty did not suffer a reverse at the hands of the Superbas and in 1909, 1910 and 1911 Boston gained no victories over him. His best record of this kind, however, was hung up against St. Louis, he losing one game to the Cardinals in 1904 and then conquering them every time he faced them until five years later.

JOHNSON HAS MADE BIG SUM.

Colored Champion Has Received More Than $300,000 Since He Became Heavyweight Premier.

Jack Johnson has not fought much, since winning the title, contenting himself with theatrical engagements and "sure thing" fights. But he has made a world of money. In six years Johnson has taken in over $300,000, and his recent victory over Moran promises to net him $100,000 more.

Here is a rough estimate of Johnson's receipts from fights, beginning with his title victory::

Opponent.
Tommy Burns	$ 5,000
Victor McLaghlen	5,000
Jack O'Brien	5,000
Tony Ross	5,000
Al Kaufman	5,000
Stanley Ketchel	12,000
James J. Jeffries	120,00
Jim Flynn	30,000
Jim Johnson	5,000
Stage contracts, 5 years	100,000
Frank Moran	35,000

PLAY BALL.

The Doctors and Business Men Will Meet—Game for the Benefit of Orphans' Home.

An interesting affair is expected when two teams representing Alpha Home and Lincoln Hospital play a benefit game for those institutions at Northwestern Park.

The hospital team will be composed of doctors, both home and foreign talent, while the Alpha Home will be represented by some prominent business men who still know the game.

The Alpha Home team is under the management of Mr. Robert T. Williams, and the hospital team will be piloted by Dr. C. A. Toles.

DEATH OF MRS. ELIZA JOHNSON.

Mrs. Eliza Johnson, an old and highly respected lady of the East End, died last Sunday night at her late residence, in Alvord street, after an illness of about a year. The funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from New Bethel Baptist Church of which she had been a member for a great many years. She leaves three children, Mrs. Mary B. Simmons, Thos. and William Burton, all of this city; one sister, Mrs. Joseph Pollock, of Friendswood, Ind., and one brother, Dr. Thomas Burton, of Springfield, O., to mourn her departure.

THE WORK OF WILLIAM E. SCOTT, THE HOOSIER ARTIST, ON EXHIBITION IN CHICAGO.

Special to Indianapolis Freeman.

CHICAGO, Ill.—William E. Scott, the great negro Hoosier artist is here in Chicago and has had a very successful exhibition of his pictures in the reception parlors of the Wabash branch Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Scott has been the recipient of many parties and receptions during his sojourn in this cosmopolitan city, both from the negro and white citizens. It was here in the Chicago School of Art that Mr. Scott received his earlier training and also a scholarship abroad.

While being here, he has been called upon to paint the portraits of several wealthy white and colored citizens besides disposing of several of his best pictures.

Another great honor that has been bestowed upon Mr. Scott is in the selection of names among those of Indiana's greatest artists, who are to furnish the interior decorations for the new building of te City Hospital in Indianapolis. In a specal message sent to Mr. Scott to obtain his services for his part of the work, the letter read that since he was one of Indiana's foremost artists that his services were wanted in this above mentioned work. And to further show the great appreciation of Mr. Scott's ability by the directors of the institution he is to furnish the decorations for the first floor with the privilege of selecting his own subjects. This will keep Mr. Scott busy all summer and will doubtless lead to other work that will keep the renowned artist in this country for a year.

Among the other artists who will furnish decorations are Forsythe, Steel, Otis, Adams, Wheeler, Wayman, Adams, Grap and Starke.

This is indeed a great honor for the whole negro race and when such things are noticed it parts the shadowy haze of doubt which stands between the negro race and success and gives a hopeful ray of light for the future.

NOBLE SISSLE.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

More than 100 persons attended the first annual membership banquet in the new building Tuesday evening. Mr. Geo. L. Knox, editor of the Freeman and chairman of the committee of management, acted as toastmaster of ceremonies. Toasts were responded to by the following: Dr. J. E. Brown, "The Education That Counts"; J. Walter Hodge, "The Why of the Physical Department"; the band responded to its toast, "Our Band," with a popular selection; Mr. H. L. Saunders, "The Coming Men"; Mr. J. W. Howard, "The Neglected Man"; Dr. E. N. Perkins, "The Despised Helper"; Dr. J. H. Ward, "How We Have Grown"; Mr. F. B. Ransom, "The Main Objective." Different members of the various departments responded to the toast, "Our Association"; the orchestra responded with selections; and the evening's program was concluded by a toast from Mr. Thos E. Taylor, secretary, "Some Facts." During Mr. Taylor's remarks he presented to the men a clear and vivid picture of just what the association meant, and pointed out the opportunity, privilege and duty of each member to the association. His remarks were heartily endorsed by those present, and at the end of his discourse the question was put to those present as to what would be the policy of the association as regards the more than 200 expirations during July. By a unanimous vote a campaign to run seven days for the purpose of obtaining renewals and new members at the $5 rate was decided upon by the membership.

This campaign differs from many other campaigns in the past, in that it is strictly individualistic. There are no captains nor team workers, but every man for himself. The awards are particularly attractive for the men securing the greatest numbers of renewals or new members. Every dollar will count a point and the man securing the largest number of points over 100 will secure a life membership; to the man securing the largest number over 75 gets a three-year membership; to the man securing the largest number over 50 receives a two-year membership; to the largest over 25 is awarded one-year privileges in the association; to the fifth and sixth largest point winners will be granted six and three-month extension of their membership, respectively. To every man securing 50 or more members will be awarded a life membership; to those securing 40 or more a three-year business men's membership; to those securing 30 or more, a two-year business membership; to those securing 25 or more, a three-year full privilege membership; to those securing 15 members is granted a two-year membership; to those securing 1 member will be given a one-year membership; to those securing 5 and 3 members will be given a six and three-months' extension of their membership. It is expected that many new members will be added to the association membership.

DR. LATTIMORE OF LOUISVILLE MARRIES MISS MAMIE HUTT OF ST. LOUIS, MO.

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—For many weeks St. Louis folks have been discussing the wedding of Dr. J. A. C. Lattimore, one of Louisville's best known physicians, to Miss Mamie Hutt, a very charming miss of St. Louis. A large number of invitations were sent to friends scattered all over the country, as the couple are very popular. Dr. Lattimore is a native of North Carolina, a graduate from Meharry Medical College, enjoys a very large practice and numbers among some of his patients many of the leading citizens of the Falls City. His name is connected with nearly every movement launched in Louisville for the uplift of the race. He is a very valuable piece of property, owns a motor car and has recently installed an X-ray outfit.

Miss Mamie Hutt is well known in St. Louis, having taught for quite a while in the public schools. She is well educated, has traveled extensively. The doctor is to be congratulated for capturing one of St. Louis's best young women.

A number of friends from "Dear Old Kaintuck" accompanied the groom to St. Louis to witness the marriage ceremony, among those we mention Drs. Pindar Flack, H. B. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. McAfee, Mrs. Thompson, mother of the groom, and Miss Georgia Lattimore. From the minute they arrived they were entertained in the most royal way. The Stag given on Monday evening was filled with many surprises. Dr. Vincent, one of the best known physicians in St. Louis, delivered the welcome address. He was greeted with prolonged applause. Dr. Phillips responded in a most eloquent way, paying a tribute to the groom that will never be forgotten. Mr. Alonzo B. McAfee, the well known undertaker of the Kentucky metropolis, was present, and brought down a storm of applause when he recited a poem famous to Kentucky and Kentuckians. Dr. Curtis, master of ceremonies, also called upon Prof. Hamilton, Dr. Craddock, Attorney Harrison and Attorney Phillips responded with fitting toasts. The table was decorated in a most artistic way and was filled with all of the delicacies of the season.

The wedding ceremony was performed at All Saints Church, Tuesday evening, June 24th, with Rector C. M. C. Mason officiating. The program carried out was unique in every respect. The groom was attended by the following gentlemen: Dr. H. B. Beck, Kentucky, best man; Prof. Langston, Dr. P. M. Flack, while the bride was attended by Miss Georgia Lattimore, maid of honor; Mrs. E. C. Shaw, matron of honor; Misses Emily Parwer and Alice Simms.

The beautiful dresses worn by the bride and bridesmaids were indeed beautiful and will ever be remembered by all who were fortunate enough to witness the affair. The bride wore a beautiful gown made of crepe meteor, trimmed with chiffon, Chantilly lace and pearls. Her veil was draped on the train. Her beautiful bouquet was formed from Brides' roses with a shower of lilies-of-the-valley. As the bride entered the church, met by the rector, all eyes were focused upon her with great admiration.

Miss Georgia Lattimore, sister of Dr. Lattimore, served as maid of honor. She wore a very stylish dress, an imported embroidered chiffon gown over pink crepe de chine, trimmed with rosebuds and ribbons. She wore a hat of white ostrich feathers. Mrs. E. C. Shaw, a sister of the bride, wore a white crepe de chine trimmed with Venetian lace.

A reception was tendered at the residence of the bride where a large number of friends greeted "The Newlyweds." In the receiving line were Mrs. A. B. McAfee, of Louisville, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. M. J. Thompson and Mrs. W. C. Gordon. Many very handsome presents were received by the couple from many distant cities Mr. McMann, A. B. McAfee, Mr. Levine and Prof. Hamilton served as ushers.

On last Sunday at the very beautiful residence on West Walnut street, Louisville, the doctor entertained a large number of persons who came to greet Dr. and Mrs. Lattimore. Refreshments were served. Friends had an opportunity to peep in on the many handsome presents received from Louisville. Every conceivable article is represented in this collection. The first to attract the attention of those entering the room was the very handsome brass bed presented by the Colored physicians of Louisville. Space will not permit us to give a complete list of the many beautiful presents.

MURPHYSBORO, ILL.

GULFPORT, MISS., NEWS.

(By The Freeman Bureau, 2002 13th St., Box 531.)

Mrs. F. H. Wilson, 30th avenue, who has been confined to her bed on account of illness, is able to be out. We hope that Mrs. Wilson will soon be in perfect health again.

Capt. D. J. Stokes made a trip to Pass Christian last week and reports an enjoyable trip. He saw "Jess" and says he is doing well.

Mr. Phil. E. Blackshief made an extended trip to Hattiesburg, Jackson and other points during last week visiting relatives and old friends during his vacation. He had a fine trip and says much progress is being made by the negroes of that section.

Rev. B. S. Williams, pastor St. Paul A. M. E. church, spent last week at Kokomo, Miss., where he conducted a great revival at the request of Rev. J. J. Dodson and congregation of that community. Able sermons were preached and many men and women embraced a hope in Christ and confessed.

Capt. D. J. Stokes, one of the best known and most popular hotel men, left for Chicago, Ill., last Friday. Capt. Stokes has been engaged at the Great Southern Hotel, where he has given entire satisfaction and leaves to the regret of the management and a host of friends. From Chicago he will go to Ottawa Beach, Mich.

Mrs. J. S. Bell returned to the city after spending several days in New Orleans with relatives and friends. Mr. Bell was lonesome until she arrived.

Simpson-James.

Monday afternoon, June 22, 1914, the marriage of Mr. Jerome Simpson to Miss Willie E. James was quietly solemnized at the residence of the bride, 32d avenue. On account of the popularity of the contracting parties had the occasion been made public previous to the wedding it would have been difficult to accomodate their host of friends and admirers in the spacious and well appointed residence. Miss James is one of Gulfport's most charming young ladies, loved and favorably known for her affability and unceasing interest and activity in church circles and every uplifting movement in this community. She is also of the best known and most highly respected families in this section. Mr. Simpson is well known and a splendid young man and enjoys the best wishes and confidence of his acquaintance. They left Monday night for Mobile and other points. The Freeman joins their large number of friends in wishing them a long, happy and successful matrimonial voyage.

Mr. J. W. Fitzpatrick has been confined to his home on account of illness. We hope to see him out again soon.

Don't forget that you can get the Freeman at Mr. Matthew Heslip's grocery store.

Mrs. Mary Lynch died at her mother's residence, Gaston Point, Tuesday, June 30, and was buried July 1. Mrs. Lynch suffered several weeks and was patient and conscious of her death. She was a devoted wife and mother and a strong, shining christian example and died triumphant in faith. Her dying testimony will long be remembered appealing to all to live true christian lives. Rev. A. J. McNair, Rev. B. S. Williams conducted the funeral ceremony from the M. E. church, of which she was a faithful member. The bereaved family has our sincere sympathy.

CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

Special to The Freeman.

The Clarksville Giants put two straights over the Providence, Ky., boys, the first game being an eleven inning contest. Score, 2 to 1. The second game was a fifteen-inning contest. Score, 7 to 6. The Clarksville Giants would like to hear from all baseball clubs, such as the Louisville White Sox, and the A. B. C's. The Clarksville Giants have played nine games and only lost one. The Clarksville Giants played the Olmstead, Ky., boys Monday and Tuesday. ---- Mrs. Harry Martin is ill at her home on Eleventh street. ---- Mr. James Shelton is ill at his home on Main street. ---- The Odd Fellows gave their annual Fourth of July celebration at Union Park. ---- Mrs. Irene Kimbrough was buried Saturday, July 4th, funeral services being held from St. John's church, Rev. Holloway officiating. The floral designs were numerous and beautiful.

BRUNSWICK, GA.

Special to THE FREEMAN.

On the 4th of July the military display and barbecue by the Uniform Rank, K. of P., and Cavelry Troop B. were a disappointment on account of bad weather. Brunswick Cavelry Troop B. and Seaside Company D. had their grand parade at 8:30 a. m., headed by the brass band, marching to the park, where things were in readiness for the prize drill and dress parade. But the rain and thunder storm seemed too much for the people. ---- Mr. George Troup, an old citizen, was found dead on the street last Saturday night just after a sharp flash of lightning which threw the whole city in darkness for the night, and tore away parts of the Government building columns and flagstaff. Mr. George Troup was a Christian-hearted man, between the age of 55 and 60, was loved by all who knew him. His remains were laid to rest Sunday, July 5th. Funeral was held at the First Baptist church, Rev. John Williams, pastor. ---- Brunswick baseball fans were feeling good for the big game of ball between Waycross and Brunswick. Special trains came with spectators to see the big special game, but what happened—the rain and thunder storm. ---- Miss Helen Mayner, of Jacksonville, is spending a few months with Miss Clara Bell Tatnall, at her domicile, 1717 Cochran avenue. ---- Mr. Willis E. Jenkins, proprietor of the Congress Hall saloon, has opened up a nice boarding house at 206 1-2 Monk, better known as Jenkins' Hotel. You can get anything to eat that is eatable. He will be glad to see all of his friends.

LYNCHBURG, VA.

By R. White)

Special to THE FREEMAN.

At the Ford Theater: Tolliver & Chappell are pleasing in their Mexican and Indian novelty singing sketch. Pamplin in his juggling act is very good. ---- The Manhattan Giants defeated the White Sox today. Score was 2 to 0. The game was enjoyed throughout. ---- The annual banquet of Old Dominion Lodge No. 188, of I. B. P. O. E. of W., last Monday night, June 29, proved one of the most enjoyable festivities of the season. ---- When in Lynchburg, and being overcome by the influence of morphine, wend your way to R. White's lodging house, 1006 Fifth street. Large airy rooms and first class accommodations.

VALDOSTA, GA.

Special to The Freeman.

Mrs. Willie Jackson, of Moultrie, Ga., is spending a while with her husband in this city. ---- Mrs. Tom Smith, a well known lady, was found in a well at the home of Bob Whitsed, 610 River street, Friday morning. Mrs. Smith came home Monday afternoon from Madison, Fla., and had been missing ever since Monday night at 10:30. Deceased leaves a husband and one child. ---- Mr. A. J. Ridhson has returned to Hampton Springs, Fla., after spending ten days in this city with his wife. ---- The Freeman will be for sale every Saturday by Land Purdie, 601 Third avenue, Valdosta, Ga.

SHEFFIELD, ALA., NOTES.

Special to THE FREEMAN.

Mrs. Fannie Terry, of Nashville, Tenn., is in the city visiting her son, Mr. Ed Mahaw. ---- Mr. Johnnie Gladstone spent the Fourth in Chattanooga, Tenn., with his many friends. ---- Mrs. Martha Tyler and little son left Sunday for Memphis, where they will spend a week or so with relatives. ---- Get the Freeman at the Pleasure Garden, on Second street.

Free Book on Drink Habit
A well-known New Yorker, having been addicted to drink habit for sixteen years, and finding that it was putting him in the human scrap heap, like so many thousands are ruined, found a means of quick and lasting riddance which he tells about in a book that he has published.
This book contains information of vital interest to drinkers, their wives and others who have tried in vain to conquer the habit by persuasion, pledges or medicines. It is not a temperance lecture, but an easy-reading narrative, well illustrated. The author, Edward J. Woods, 781 D, Station E, New York City, will send it free, in a plain wrapper, postpaid.
